PRESTON GOMEZ

Preston Gomez, who devoted over 65 years of his life to professional baseball, passed away January 13 in Fullerton, CA. He was 86.

"The Angels family has lost one of its invaluable members, and one of baseball's truly great ambassadors," said Angels' General Manager Tony Reagins at the time of his passing.. "His influence and impact on so many throughout the industry is impossible to measure. Though he will be missed, Preston's legacy will forever remain a part of this organization."

"Preston had an incredible passion for baseball and was a mentor for all of us who were fortunate to spend time with him," said Angels' Manager Mike Scioscia, who yearly invited Gomez to take an active role in instructing during spring training. "He will certainly be missed, but I know his presence will be felt every time we take the field because of the knowledge and wisdom that he imparted to us."

On March 26, 2008, he was returning to California following his time in spring training with the ballclub in Tempe, AZ when he was struck by a truck while walking to his car. He was never able to recover from the injuries sustained in the accident.

During his career, Gomez served as a player, coach, manager, talent scout and consultant. He spent his last 28 years in baseball with the Angels, first as a major league coach and later as a special assistant to the General Manager.

A native of Havana, Cuba, Gomez began his playing career in 1944 as a 21-year-old shortstop with the Washington Senators. He was brought to the U.S. by the ballclub when major league rosters were depleted because of World War II. He batted .286 in eight games before spending the rest of his playing career in the minor leagues. Gomez had his finest season in the minors in 1951, batting .268 with nine home runs and 58 RBI for Three Rivers (PA).

After his playing career ended, Gomez first managed in the Mexican Winter League before being offered a minor league coaching position by the Dodgers. He spent eight seasons as a minor league manager in the Cincinnati, Los Angeles and New York Yankees farm systems, guiding clubs such as Fresnillo, Mexico City, Havana, Spokane and Richmond. He led the Dodgers' Spokane club to the Pacific Coast League pennant in 1960. He also spent time coaching with Houston and St. Louis.

In 1965, Gomez became the third-base coach for the Dodgers, where he served through four seasons, earning two National league pennants and a World Series title. He left the club in 1969 to manage the expansion San Diego Padres (1969-72), joining former Dodgers' Vice-President Buzzie Bavasi. He later managed the Houston Astros (1974-75) and Chicago Cubs (1980). Gomez compiled a 346-529 (.395) managerial record in seven seasons. He then joined the Angels' organization in 1981 as third base coach, a position he held for four seasons (1981-84) before becoming a special assistant to the General Manager.

Born April 20, 1923, in Central Preston, Oriented, Cuba, Gomez was inducted into the Hispanic Baseball Heritage Museum Hall of Fame, May 3, 2003.

He is survived by his wife Elizabeth, brother Jose Gomez, sisters Rachel Valz and Sara Raspall, son Pedro, daughter Elia, step-daughter Claudia Astorga, adopted son Carlos Becerra, and grandchildren Sergio, Jr. and Eliana.

E.J. "BUZZIE" BAVASI

E.J. "Buzzie" Bavasi, one of the most colorful General Manager's in baseball history, passed away last May 21 at the age of 92. A baseball executive for nearly a half-century, Bavasi served as GM of the Angels from October 24, 1977 until his retirement, September 1, 1984.

Bavasi began his career in 1940 as the business manager of the Dodgers' Americus, GA farm team in 1940. He spent three seasons as an executive in the low minors before entering the Army, where he was a machine-gunner in the Italian campaign, winning a bronze star.

Bavasi would return from service to his country and took over management of the Dodgers' Nashua, N.H. farm club in 1946. In 1951, he assumed the title of GM for the Brooklyn Dodgers. In his 18 years with the Dodgers, his ballclub's appeared in eight World Series, winning four (1955, 1959, 1963 and 1965) while losing in 1952, 1953, 1956, and 1966.

He resigned from the Dodgers when the opportunity presented itself to oversee the expansion San Diego Padres in 1969. Bavasi would serve as Team President of the Padres from 1969-1977, before moving north and a new role as Executive Vice-President of the then California Angels. He was in charge of the organization during its first two championship seasons (1979, 1982).

Bavasi was involved in several of baseball's groundbreaking initiatives, including helping to integrate professional baseball with future Dodger greats Don Newcombe and Roy Campanella when all three were with the Dodgers farm system in New Hamshire in 1946. He also assisted in bringing baseball to the West Coast when the Dodgers moved in 1958, and also helped establish the expansion franchise in San Diego.

He is survived by four sons; Peter, Bill, Chris and Bob; nine grandchildren and five great grand-children. Peter served as GM for the Padres, Blue Jays and Cleveland Indians, while Bill served in a similar capacity for the Angels and Mariners. He is now an assistant to Cincinnati GM Walt Jocketty.

Bavasi was always a "bigger than life" leader for those who worked for him during his tenure with the Angels. He will always be remembered for the interest he showed in his employees, his famous "letter-writing" to so many, and above all, his loyalty and respect for Gene Autry.

MATT McHALE

Matt McHale, one of the Southland's more popular sportswriters, passed away last July 14 from a heart attack, at the much too young age of 50. He was best known for his work covering the Los Angeles Dodgers and Los Angeles Kings.

During his time covering sports in Southern California, Matt was employed by the Daily News, Orange County Register, Pasadena Star-News and the Associated Press. He also served as deputy sports editor for the Daily News and sports editor of the L.A. Newspaper Group.

Matt had a gift for story-telling, and was someone who took a great sense of pride in each and every article or column attached to his name. He had a love and passion for the game of baseball, and worked diligently to learn and understand the intricacies of the game from those who managed, coached and played it.

Matt was known for his calm demeanor and the easy-going manner in which he communicated with athletes. He was fair in his representation of players or situations he wrote about, and always professional and diligent in approach.

In recent years, Matt had battled diabetes, yet remained upbeat and optimistic when queried about his health. Though he will be missed, his memory will long be remembered by numerous members of the media in the area, as well by many in front offices throughout the sports industry in Southern California.

BILLY MUFFETT

Billy Arnold Muffett, a former pitching coach for the California Angels from 1974-77, passed away last June 15 at his home in Monroe, Louisiana. He was 77.

Born in Hammond, Indiana, Muffet made his Major League debut for the St. Louis Cardinals on August 3, 1957. He would later pitch for the San Francisco Giants and concluded with the Boston Red Sox, his last appearance coming April 28, 1962. His career included 125 overall games, with a 16-23 record and a 4.33 ERA.

After retiring as a player, Muffett spent 16 seasons as a Major League pitching coach for the Cardinals, Angels and Tigers between 1967-1994. He coached the Cardinals' 1967-68 pennant-winning clubs, including the 1967 World Series champions.

In 1987 he survived a bout with cancer in 1987, though he continued in his role as the Tigers pitching coach during his recovery.

GIL STRATTON

Gil Stratton, one of Southern California's sports casting mainstays as the voice of the Rams, horse racing from Santa Anita and as an anchor on Channel 2 News and KNX 1070 Newsradio, died last October 11 of congestive heart failure at his home in Toluca Lake,. He was 86.

A former Pacific Coast League umpire, Stratton's signature line, "I call 'em as I see 'em," became familiar to generations of Southern Californians during his 17-year tenure on "The Bigs News" (KNXT, now KCBS).

His sports-casting career included covering the Summer Olympics from Rome in the 1960s, calling the feature horse race on Saturdays from Santa Anita, Hollywood Park and Del Mar, and working as an announcer for the Rams during their time in the L.A. Memorial Coliseum.

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Stratton was born June 2, 1922. He attended Poly Prep in Brooklyn and earned his bachelor's degree from St. Lawrence University in Canton, N.Y. He started his acting career as a teenager and, at the age of 19, appeared on Broadway in the George Abbot production "Best Foot Forward" and also worked as a radio actor. Two years later, he appeared in the film "Girl Crazy" with Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland, singing "Embraceable You" in duet with Garland.

Stratton joined the Army Air Forces during World War II, being inducted on stage in Chicago after a performance of "Best Foot Forward," and was trained at the gunnery school in Las Vegas. But he spent much of his time umpiring service ball, a skill he had picked up while going to college.

After the war, he settled in Southern California and picked up his acting career, appearing in films including "Stalag 17" with William Holden, "The Wild One," starring Marlon Brando, and "Monkey Business," with Cary Grant, Ginger Rogers and Charles Coburn.

He also did a wide variety of classic radio broadcasts, and when he wasn't working behind the mike or camera, he made a living, often behind the plate as an umpire for Pacific Coast League games for nine years in the 1950s.

He is survived by his wife of 47 years, Dee, and his children, Gilda Stratton, Billy Norvas, Gibby Stratton, Laurie O'Brien and Cary Stratton. He is also survived by eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

On behalf of the Angels Baseball Club, welcome to the 2009 Major League Baseball (MLB) season at Angel Stadium. Our goal is to make your job covering the Angels as convenient as possible.

ADMISSION TO ANGEL STADIUM: Enter through the Media Entrance, located at the Home Plate Gate (between Gates 2 and 3). The Media Entrance opens six hours prior to game time (four hours prior to day games).

CREDENTIALS: To obtain season or daily credentials, a request must be made on company letterhead and sent (via mail or fax) to the Angels Communications Department. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies. Requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of the day of the game, or by 2:00 p.m. Friday for Saturday and Sunday contests. Credentials may be picked up at Media Will Call, located inside the Ticket Office at the Home Plate Gate, which opens four hours prior to game time (three hours before day games). Identification will be required. Media members with BBWAA credentials should notify Angels Communications when planning to cover a contest to reserve a seat in the press box. ALL CREDENTIALS ARE NON-TRANSFERABLE; ANY UNAUTHORIZED USE WILL BE CAUSE FOR CONFISCATION OF CREDENTIAL AND EJECTION FROM ANGEL STADIUM.

PARKING: Media must enter Angel Stadium through the Orangewood Media/VIP/Bus entrance and park in designated parking areas. Parking is free of charge with valid credentials. If attending on a single game basis, call the Angels Communications Department at least 24 hours in advance of the game for parking arrangements. If arrangements are not made, a parking fee may be charged and no refunds can be given.

PHOTOGRAPHY: Photo credentials are issued in the same manner as other credentials. Due to limited photo locations, it is impossible to allow freelance photographers access unless assigned by a legitimate newsgathering agency.

PRESS BOX: Space in the Angels' press box is available for accredited members of the media on assignment only. The lower level is reserved for writers and broadcast reporters, while the upper level is for live coverage by television and radio networks. Charge telephones and wireless are also available on the lower level. Your cooperation is requested in maintaining a working press box atmosphere. Both club's games notes, statistical information, press releases, roster sheets, and minor league results will be available. Please ask a Communications Representative for any additional information you may need. Facsimile service is available by contacting the Angels Communications Department prior to game time.

INTERVIEWS: Requests for interviews needing advance preparation or special accommodation by an Angels player or staff member are to be directed to the Angels Communications Department. This includes all live television interviews for pre-game and post-game as well as all on-field requests during batting practice.

CLUBHOUSES: The Angels clubhouse is open 3-1/2 hours prior to game time and will remain open until one hour before game time. Both clubhouses will also open 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game. The visiting clubhouse is governed by the visiting club. The Umpires Dressing Room is off-limits to the media. If a comment or interpretation from the umpire crew chief is needed, a pool reporter may be assigned.

PRE-GAME PROCEDURES: Prior to most games, the Angels will take batting practice approximately two and one-half hours prior to game time.

PRESS DINING ROOM: Prior to each home game, media with season, MLB, or single-game credentials are welcome to dine in the Press Dining Room. There will be a $10.00 fee charged for each meal. Refreshments are also available during the game through the seventh inning. Dining room usage is limited to those with proper credentials. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, or guests. NO ONE UNDER 18 years of age will be permitted in the dining room. As a professional courtesy, we ask that you dress in appropriate business attire. Any abuse of these privileges may cause forfeiture of credentials.

STATISTICIAN SERVICES: Statisticians to assist TV and radio broadcasts may be acquired by contacting Angels Communications at (714) 940-2014 with 24 hours advance notice.

TELEPHONES: As a courtesy, the Angels provide a limited number of charge-a-call telephones throughout the press box which are available on a first-come basis. To order your own telephone line, contact the Angels Communications Department at (714) 940-2014. The Angels will not be responsible for costs.

NO AUTOGRAPHS: ANY MEMBER OF THE MEDIA REQUESTING AUTOGRAPHS OR PERSONAL PHOTOGRAPHS FROM PLAYERS OR COACHES WILL HAVE PRESS ACCESS REVOKED.

2009 ANGELS INFORMATION GUIDE

ARTURO "ARTE" MORENO
OWNER

Arte Moreno was introduced as the third owner in Angels' franchise history in May 2003. As owner of the Angels, Moreno's impact has been immediate. He has guided the Angels with a large market approach which led to four West Division championships and six consecutive seasons drawing over three million fans, resulting in a combined home attendance of over 20 million. In just four years, his support of the Baseball Operations Department has culminated in the key free-agent signings of 2004 A.L. MVP Vladimir Guerrero, 2005 Cy Young Award winner Bartolo Colon, eight-time Gold Glove outfielder Torii Hunter, Kelvim Escobar, Orlando Cabrera and Gary Matthews Jr.

Following the 2005 season, Moreno was honored by the Los Angeles Sports Council as Los Angeles Sports Executive of the Year. And earlier that year Time Magazine named him as one of the 25 Most Influential Hispanics in America.

During Moreno's tenure, the Angels have been among the industry's best in the areas of Player Development and Scouting. The Angels minor league affiliates have reached the playoffs 21 times while capturing 14 division titles and four league titles. The Angels' farm system posted winning records in five of the six seasons (2003-05-06-07-08) and was named "Minor League Organization of the Year" in 2003 by The Sporting News and 2007 Farm System of the Year by the Minor League News.

Moreno advanced the establishment of the Angels Baseball Foundation in June 2003. The Foundation focuses on initiatives aimed to create and improve education, health care, arts and sciences, and community-related youth programs throughout the region, in addition to providing children the opportunity to experience baseball and its positive attributes.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Angels and various committees within Major League Baseball, Moreno is also a member of the Little League Foundation Board of Trustees, which assists Little Leagues in all 50 U.S. states and more than 70 other countries with more than 2.7 million participants.

In the mid-80s, Moreno was among a group who owned the former single-A Salt Lake Trappers of the Pioneer League. Under his group's ownership, the Trappers went on to win three championships. He was later an original investor in the Arizona Diamondbacks, and a former part owner of the NBA's Phoenix Suns.

A native of Tucson, Arizona, Moreno served his country in Viet Nam as a member of the U.S. Army. After his tour of duty, he attended the University of Arizona, graduating with a Bachelors of Science degree in Marketing.

Moreno and wife Carole are active in their own philanthropic efforts. They established the Moreno Family Foundation, which supports non-profit organizations focusing on youth and education. They are the parents of three children.

ANGELS

DENNIS KUHL
PRESIDENT

Dennis Kuhl begins his sixth year as President of the Angels after his appointment, Nov. 10, 2003 and oversees all day-to-day operations of Angels Baseball. He is the eighth president in Angels' history.

Under his leadership, the Angels have shown tremendous growth and advancement in key business initiatives, including sponsorship and marketing revenues, the nationwide expansion and marketing of the Angels brand, an upsurge in attendance (the Angels have topped the 3-million plateau for six straight seasons) and increased broadcasting revenue through television and radio partnerships.

Dennis, who has over 30 years experience in the Outdoor Advertising industry, came to the Angels after spending eight years as Executive Vice President, Western Region, for Viacom Outdoor. He began his career as an account Executive with Eller Outdoor of Phoenix, AZ in 1973.

In 1982 Dennis was named Vice President, General Manager of Gannett Outdoor of New Haven, Connecticut. After two years, he was promoted to Vice President, Western Region for Outdoor Network USA, a sales arm of Gannett Outdoor. He remained with Gannett Outdoor for the next 10 years in a variety of roles, resulting in his advancement to President of Gannett Outdoor New York in 1990.

After three years, Dennis left Gannett Outdoor in 1993 to become Vice President of National Sales for Outdoor Systems. The next year he was named Vice President, General Manager for Outdoor Systems in Atlanta, Georgia, and then Southern California.

Dennis, 59, has been very active in community organizations and charities throughout his career. A former member of the Walter Camp Football Foundation of New Haven, Connecticut, he also served as a board member of The Shire, a treatment facility in Mendham, NJ, which treats alcoholism in teenagers, and a board member of Young Black Achievers in Newark, NJ. He spent seven years as a Valley Big Brother in Phoenix, AZ, and was President of the Multiple Sclerosis Society (Phoenix Chapter).

Dennis is actively involved in several Southern California charities. He serves as the President of the "Light the Night" Event which supports the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and is a founding board member of The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation/Lott Trophy. He also serves on the Board of Governors at Chapman University, Board of Directors for the Los Angeles Sports Council and Board of Directors of the Newport Sports Museum.

A Boonton (NJ) native, Dennis graduated from the University of Arizona in 1970 with a degree in Business Administration. Prior to that, he attended Chamberlayne Junior College in Boston, MA. He currently resides in Newport Beach.

BILL BEVERAGE
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bill Beverage enters his sixth season as Chief Financial Officer for the Angels after joining the organization in Nov. 2003. As the Angels' CFO, his duties include managing the day-to-day finances of the organization. In addition, he and Bill Levine became limited partners with Arte Moreno in an ownership group for the Angels, Oct. 24, 2003.

Prior to his current position, Beverage served as both controller and CFO during his 18-year career in the outdoor advertising industry.

Before he entered the outdoor advertising industry, Beverage was an auditor with Arthur Young after graduating from the University of Alabama with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting.

Bill and his wife reside in Phoenix, AZ.

JOHN CARPINO
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, SALES AND MARKETING

Beginning his sixth season with the Angels, John Carpino serves as the Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing after his appointment, Dec. 1, 2003. He oversees all aspects of marketing, promotions and ticket sales for the Angels organization.

Under Carpino's direction, the Angels' organization has enjoyed unprecedented financial growth in the sponsorship, marketing and ticketing divisions.

Carpino began his professional career in 1982 in the billboard industry, including stints in Tucson, AZ, Chicago, IL, Phoenix, AZ, and Los Angeles, CA. In 1985, he joined Arte Moreno at Outdoor Systems, a billboard company (which later became Viacom Outdoor in 2000 and CBS Outdoor in 2005) and spent 18 years in the Phoenix, AZ (1985-95) and Los Angeles (1995-2003) markets. Carpino oversaw $200 million in sales for the Western Region.

Carpino, 50, was born in Chicago, Illinois and is a 1982 graduate of the University of Arizona with a degree in Business Administration. He serves on the Executive Board for the Orange County United Way. John and his wife Elizabeth have three children and reside in Laguna Beach.

MOLLY TAYLOR JOLLY
VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION

Molly Taylor Jolly is in her ninth season with the Angels and sixth as Vice President, Finance and Administration after her promotion, Nov. 14, 2003. She spent the three previous years as Director of Finance for both the Angels and Mighty Ducks of Anaheim.

Jolly oversees the financial operation of the Angels, including budgeting, accounting, planning, ticketing and payroll. She is also responsible for office administration, including human resources and information services.

Before joining the Angels organization in 2000, Jolly spent 11 years working for the Atlantic Richfield Company (ARCO), including six years (1989-94) at Arco Alaska in Anchorage, serving as an Inventory Accountant, Financial Analyst and Electronic Commerce Manager. In 1994, Molly was transferred to Arco Corporate in Los Angeles where she worked as an Internal Control Advisor and Project Manager. She was promoted in 1996 to Financial Manager and Strategic Planning Senior Consultant for the Arco Products Company.

Jolly began her career in 1988 as an auditor for the Arthur Anderson Company in Boston, MA.

A 1988 graduate of Holy Cross with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics/Accounting, Jolly graduated from the Anderson School at UCLA with a Masters degree in Business Administration in 1999. She and her husband Burt reside in Anaheim Hills.

TIM MEAD
VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Tim Mead begins his 30th season in the Angels' organization and 12th as Vice President, Communications following his appointment, Feb. 9, 1998. He oversees all media relations, publicity, broadcasting, community relations and publications efforts of the Angels.

Before his current appointment, Mead spent four seasons as Assistant General Manager (1994-97) under former GM Bill Bavasi.

Mead, 50, began his career with the Angels as an intern in the public relations department in 1980. He was appointed Director of Media Relations in 1985 and later Assistant Vice President of Media Relations in 1991. During his tenure in Media Relations, Mead and his staff have been responsible for the handling of media during the 1986, 2004, 2005, 2007 and 2008 Angels' post-season appearances, the 1989 All-Star Game and the Angels memorable World Series run in 2002. He has also assisted Major League Baseball at several All-Star Games, League Championship Series, World Series and World Baseball Classics.

Mead was the recipient of the 2000 Robert O. Fishel Award for PR excellence, which recognizes the "active non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball whose ethics, character, dedication, service, professionalism and humanitarian efforts best represent the standards propounded by Robert O. Fishel" (longtime baseball executive). He was also honored in May 2005 with the first Distinguished Alumnus Award for Athletics by his alma mater Cal Poly Pomona.

In April 2002, Mead took part in the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference (JCOC) designed by the Department of Defense. He was one of 60 civilians chosen by the Pentagon to attend the conference, traveling to the Pentagon, Norfolk Naval Air Station in VA; Sheppard Air Force Base, Sheppard, Texas; Fort Bragg and Camp Lejeune, NC and Ofutt Air Force Base in Omaha, Nebraska to see the United States Strategic Command Center. The trip is designed to present a clearer picture and understanding of the military to civic and community leaders across the country.

The Athens, Greece, native is a 1980 graduate of Cal Poly Pomona with a Bachelor of Science degree in Communications. Mead is a Member of the Board of Directors for the Orange County Sports Youth Association and assists other charitable groups such as Amigos de los Niños and the Anaheim Family Justice Center. Mead also serves on the advisory committee for the Sports Management Program at Long Beach State and the Dean's Advisory Board for the College of Communications at Cal State Fullerton. He and his wife Carole have one son, Brandon, and reside in Diamond Bar.

RICHARD McCLEMMY
VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE SALES

Richard McClemmy, who begins his 19th year with the Angels organization in 2009, was promoted to Vice President of Corporate Sales, Nov. 29, 2007. McClemmy, 47, is responsible for leading the organization's corporate sponsorship efforts.

Prior to his promotion, McClemmy served as the Angels' Director of Corporate Sales since 1998 after spending his first seven years in the organization in numerous roles, including Season Sales, Group Sales, Suite Director and Marketing Director.

Before joining the Angels in 1991, McClemmy worked in the hospitality industry. He spent three years at the New Orleans Hilton as the hotel's convention director. McClemmy then worked four years for Marriott International Inc. at the Anaheim Marriott before launching his own hotel consulting business.

Originally a Philadelphia, PA, native, McClemmy earned a degree in hotel management from Penn State Univ. in 1984. Active in the community, he is a member of the Advisory Board for Special Olympics Southern California and is the Chairman of the Advisory Committee for Team Up For Down Syndrome. McClemmy, who is a past president of the Hospitality Sales and Marketing Association (Orange County chapter), is also a supporter of the J.F. Shea Therapeutic Riding Center. He currently resides in San Juan Capistrano with his wife Kathleen and two children (Sean and Patrick).

ROBERT ALVARADO
VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING & TICKET SALES

Beginning his ninth season in the Angels organization, Robert Alvarado is the Angels' Vice President of Marketing and Ticket Sales following his promotion, Nov. 29, 2007. He spent the previous three seasons (2005-07) as the club's Director of Marketing and Ticket Sales. Alvarado and his staff are responsible for marketing the Angels brand including club advertising, promotions, sales marketing, special events and the Angels website as well as the sales and service of ticket products including suites, season seats and group sales.

During Alvarado's tenure, the Angels have drawn an average of three million fans per season, including five consecutive 3.3 million-plus seasons (2004–08) and a season seat base increase from approximately 12,000 to over 30,000 annually.

Alvarado, 45, joined the Angels organization in 2001. He began as the Director of Marketing, a position he held through 2004 and, in a dual marketing role, also served as the Mighty Ducks of Anaheim's Director of Marketing for the 2001 - 2002 seasons.

A native Southern Californian, Robert returned to Orange County after spending six years with the Coors Brewing Company, serving in multiple capacities. His latest position was as the Manager, Business Development in Golden, Colorado. Prior to joining Coors, Alvarado worked in various advertising and promotion agencies throughout Southern California.

Alvarado graduated from California State University, Fullerton in 1987 with a degree in Communications. He currently serves on the Advisory Board for the Orange County Salvation Army.

Alvarado and his wife Kathy reside in Tustin Ranch with their daughters Lauren and Julia.

TONY REAGINS
GENERAL MANAGER

On Oct. 16, 2007, Tony Reagins was named the 10th general manager in club history, replacing Bill Stoneman who held the longest tenure of any Angels GM (November, 1999 – October, 2007).

Following his promotion, Reagins didn't wait long to make an impact, making two big moves in November 2007: He acquired pitcher Jon Garland from the White Sox in exchange for shortstop Orlando Cabrera and signed free agent outfielder Torii Hunter, a seven-time Gold Glove winner. Reagins also acquired first baseman Mark Teixeira (via trade) prior to the non-waiver trading deadline in July, a move that helped solidify the Angels offense during the remaining months of the season.

And, in his first season as Angels' General Manager, Reagins put together a team that reached the 100-win plateau for the first time in club history, finished the 2008 season with the best record in baseball (100-62) and captured its fourth American League West Division title in five seasons.

As a result of the Angels' successful 2008 season, Reagins was named the recipient of the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award as the American League Executive of the Year at the 2008 Legacy Awards (sponsored by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum in Kansas City).

In 2009, Reagins will begin his 18th season in the Angels organization, having served a variety of roles in his career. He spent six years (2002-07) as the Angels' Director of Player Development where he was chiefly responsible for overseeing the club's minor league system, which features seven affiliates including a club and developmental academy in San Pedro De Macoris, Dominican Republic.

Under Reagins' guidance (2002-07), the Angels' affiliates reached the playoffs 18 times while capturing 15 division titles and three league titles. The Angels' farm system posted winning records in four of the six seasons (2003-05-06-07) and was named "Minor League Organization of the Year" in 2003 by The Sporting News.

Under Reagins' direction, the Angels' farm system advanced several players to the Major League roster including, Howie Kendrick, Reggie Willits, Robb Quinlan, Kendry Morales, Erick Aybar, Jeff Mathis, Mike Napoli, Jered Weaver and Joe Saunders. In addition, Minor League News named the Angels organization as the "2007 Farm System of the Year."

A trademark of the Reagins' player development era included a closer working relationship with all levels of the minor league organization. He was instrumental in establishing long term partnerships with the Player Development Contracts of several of the Angels' affiliates: Salt Lake (2001-2012), Arkansas (2001-2008), Rancho Cucamonga (2001-2010), Cedar Rapids (1993-2010) and Orem (2001-2012).

In his first season as Director of Player Development, six rookies were on the 2002 World Championship team (despite not having one rookie on the roster coming out of Spring Training). Those rookies included Brendan Donnelly, Chone Figgins, Francisco Rodriguez, John Lackey, Scot Shields and Jose Molina.

Before serving as Director of Player Development, Reagins spent four years as Manager of Baseball Operations where he worked closely with GM Bill Bavasi, Minor League Director Jeff Parker and Scouting Director Bob Fontaine. He also served as a Sponsorship Services Representative from 1996 until returning to Baseball Operations in April of 1998. Additionally, he held an internship in marketing/advertising sales and baseball operations in 1992 before being named Marketing Assistant in 1994.

A native of Indio, Reagins graduated from California State University Fullerton in 1991 with a degree in marketing and earned an AA degree in business administration from the College of the Desert in 1988.

Reagins, 41, resides in Fullerton with wife Colleen, daughter Kennedy and son Luke. Reagins is on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Coachella Valley. He is a member of the Buck O'Neil Scout Association and an active supporter of Major League Baseball's Urban Youth Academy.

KEN FORSCH
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Ken Forsch begins his 12th campaign as the Angels' Assistant General Manager following his appointment, Feb. 9, 1998. Forsch previously served as the Angels' Director of Player Development for four seasons (1994-97). He is mainly responsible for assisting general manager Tony Reagins with contract negotiations, player procurement and waiver and rule compliance.

Before joining the Angels in player development, Forsch owned a real estate company in Anaheim and worked extensively with the Angels' Community Relations department.

The right-hander posted a 114-113 career record with a 3.37 ERA and 51 saves in 16 major league seasons (1970-86), appearing in the major leagues with the Astros for 11 seasons (1970-80) and the Angels for five seasons (1981-1986). Forsch pitched a no-hitter, April 7, 1979, to defeat the Atlanta Braves (6-0). He joins brother Bob of the St. Louis Cardinals, as the only brother combo ever to pitch major league no-hitters.

Forsch was named to the N.L. All-Star team in 1976 and the A.L. All-Star Team in 1981 and appeared in the 1980 N.L. Championship Series against Philadelphia. He was traded by the Astros to the Angels, April 1, 1981 (for infielder Dickie Thon).

Originally signed by Houston after being selected in the 18th round of the June 1968 free agent draft, Forsch was first drafted out of high school by the Angels in the June 1966 free agent draft (9th round) but did not sign and instead pitched two seasons (1967-68) for Oregon State University.

Born in Sacramento, CA, the 62-year-old Forsch and his wife Jonnye reside in Anaheim Hills and have a daughter (Stephanie) and two grandchildren (Will and Jesse).

GARY SUTHERLAND
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Gary Sutherland enters his 10th season with the Angels as Special Assistant to the General Manager. In this role, he is responsible for the coordination of professional scouting. Prior to his current position, he served as the Angels' Coordinator of Professional Scouting in 1999.

Sutherland's baseball administrative career started when he joined the San Diego Padres as an area scout in 1980 and 1981. He then moved on to the Cleveland Indians, working as an area scout (1982-84) before becoming a special assignment scout/national cross checker (1985-89). In 1990, he was hired by the Los Angeles Dodgers as a special assignment/major league scout before becoming a Dodgers' advance scout in 1995. From 1996 to 1998, he served as Dodgers' coordinator of Professional Scouting.

Sutherland owns over 40 years of professional baseball experience, including 13 seasons as an infielder/outfielder in the major leagues (1966-1978), appearing with Philadelphia (1966-68), Montreal (1969-71), Houston (1972-73), Detroit (1974-76), Milwaukee (1976), San Diego (1977) and St. Louis (1978). He posted a .243 career average with 24 home runs and 239 RBI in 13 seasons.

Sutherland attended the University of Southern California in 1964, batting .363 with seven home runs and 34 RBI in 45 games. He was signed as a free agent by the Phillies, Nov. 6, 1964.

Sutherland, 63, and his wife Karen reside in Monrovia, Ca. and have three daughters, Jill, Lori and Teri and two granddaughters, Karlie, Mila and Kaitlyn.

BILL STONEMAN
SENIOR ADVISOR

On October 16, 2007, Bill Stoneman stepped down as Angels Vice President & General Manager to assume the role of Senior Advisor through Oct. 31, 2010. In his new position, Stoneman works closely with Angels' owner Arte Moreno, General Manager Tony Reagins and the Baseball Operations staff.

Stoneman's eight-year tenure as Angels' Vice President & General Manager was the longest and most successful in club history. Under Stoneman's administration, the Angels captured a World Series championship in 2002, the franchise's first A.L. West crown in 18 years in 2004, the club's first-ever back-to-back titles (2004-05) with another division championship in 2007.

Some highlights during his tenure as General Manager include: the appointment of Mike Scioscia as Manager in 1999, the acquisition of Adam Kennedy via trade with St. Louis in 2000, the acquisition of Chone Figgins via trade in 2000, the claiming of David Eckstein off waivers in 2000 and the trade of Jose Guillen to Washington in exchange for Maicer Izturis and Juan Rivera in 2004. Prior to the 2004 season, Stoneman and the Angels landed 2004 AL MVP Vladimir Guerrero and 2005 Cy Young Award winner Bartolo Colon.

As a player, Stoneman pitched for eight seasons in the major leagues, compiling a 54-85 record with 46 complete games, 15 shutouts, five saves and a 4.08 ERA in 245 games (170 starts). He began his professional career in 1966 and appeared in the major leagues with the Chicago Cubs (1967-68), Montreal (1969-73) and California (1974). Stoneman was selected to the 1972 National League All-Star team, pitching two innings at the ASG in Atlanta.

Stoneman was the 10th selection by Montreal from Chicago in the 1968 expansion draft. While with the Expos, he pitched two no-hitters: against the Philadelphia Phillies at Connie Mack Stadium, April 17, 1969 (7-0 score), and the New York Mets at Jarry Park, Oct. 2, 1972 (7-0 score). Stoneman had his contract sold to the Angels April 4, 1974, and posted a 1-8 record and 6.14 ERA in 13 games (11 starts) with California, before retiring as a player during that season.

Following his retirement from baseball in 1974, Stoneman joined Royal Trust, a Canadian financial institution, first working in Montreal and then in Toronto. He returned to baseball Nov. 14, 1983, joining the Expos as Assistant to the President. Stoneman was then appointed Vice President, Baseball Administration, Sept. 8, 1984.

A native of Oak Park, IL, and raised in West Covina, CA, Stoneman attended Mt. San Antonio Junior College in Walnut, CA. He received a Bachelor of Science (Education) degree from the University of Idaho and a Master's degree in Physical Education from the University of Oklahoma. Stoneman was inducted into the University of Idaho Alumni Hall of Fame in Feb. 1998 and, along with his wife Diane, endowed a University scholarship for physical education majors in 2005.

Stoneman, 64, and his wife Diane reside in Orange and have two grown children (Jill and Jeff).

ABE FLORES
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Abe Flores begins his second season as Director of Player Development after his promotion, Oct. 16, 2007. He spent the previous six seasons as the Angels' Manager of Baseball Operations. Flores oversees all aspects of the club's minor league system, which features seven minor league affiliates (Salt Lake, Arkansas, Rancho Cucamonga, Cedar Rapids, Orem, Tempe and San Pedro de Macoris of the Dominican Republic).

Under Flores' direction, the farm system had a highly successful 2008 season, as six of the Angels' seven affiliates reached the postseason with double-A Arkansas capturing the Texas League title. And the seven affiliates combined for a .553 winning percentage (423-342) which ranked third highest in all of minor league baseball.

Before joining the Angels' organization in November 2001, Flores worked the previous nine years (1992-2001) as an area scout in Southern California and Mexico for the Colorado Rockies. Before joining Colorado, he worked three seasons (1990-92) as an assistant coach at the University of Southern California, one season (1989) as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Arkansas, which went on to finish fifth at the College World Series, and two seasons (1987-88) as an assistant at American River College in Sacramento, CA. In the summers of 1989-90, he coached the Orleans Cardinals in the Cape Cod League, and in 1991 he coached the Anchorage Glacier Pilots in the Alaska College League.

A Panorama City, CA, native, Flores earned a bachelor's degree in social science with a physical education minor at Cal State Sacramento in 1988 and later obtained a master's degree in sports management from the University of Arkansas in 1989. A first baseman-outfielder, he played two seasons (1985-86) at Sacramento after playing two seasons (1983-84) at Los Angeles Valley College.

Flores, 45, and his wife, Leslie, reside in Huntington Beach.

EDDIE BANE
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Eddie Bane begins his sixth campaign as Director of Scouting for the Angels after his appointment, Oct. 3, 2003. He oversees the scouting of amateur and minor league players as well as the signing of domestic amateur players and international players. Under his direction, Angels' scouts have been responsible for drafting and signing highly-regarded Angels prospects such as Jered Weaver, Kendry Morales, Nick Adenhart, Hank Conger, Sean O'Sullivan and Freddy Sandoval.

Bane came to the Angels after serving two years as a special assistant to former Tampa Bay General Manager Chuck Lamar.

Before joining the Devil Rays, he spent 11 years (1988-1998) as a national cross-checker and major league scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Following his eight-year professional playing career, he served as a pitching coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers' rookie-level Lethbridge in 1983. He then worked for the Cleveland Indians, serving as the manager for short-season A Batavia for two seasons (1984-85) and as a cross-checker/scout (1984-87).

Bane, 57, was selected by the Minnesota Twins in the first round (11th pick) of the 1973 free agent draft as a left-handed pitcher. He appeared in the major leagues with the Twins for three seasons (1973, 1975-76) and became the 16th player to begin his professional career at the major league level with a July 4, 1973, major league debut. In 44 major league appearances (25 starts), Bane was 7-13 with two saves and a 4.66 ERA.

Before signing with the Twins, Bane was an All-American pitcher at Arizona State University (1972-73), where he went 40-4 with a 1.64 ERA in this three-year career (1971-73). He still holds the Sun Devils career strikeout record with 505 and is the only ASU pitcher to throw a perfect game. In 2008, Bane was inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame.

The Chicago, IL, native attended Westminster (CA) High School. Bane has four children: Jaymie, Kacey, Corey and Veronica. Son Jaymie was drafted by the Angels in the 20th round of the 1997 free agent draft, spending two seasons in the Angels farm system, and is now a scout for the Boston Red Sox.

TORY HERNANDEZ
MANAGER, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Tory Hernandez begins his second season as Manager of Baseball Operations after spending the previous three seasons (2005-2007) as the organization's Player Performance Analyst. Hernandez is responsible for managing the day-to-day operations of the player development and scouting departments, coordinating the Angels' amateur draft and overseeing budgets for player development and amateur scouting. He also continues to oversee statistical research for major league contracts and arbitration.

Hernandez, 30, previously worked for the Texas Rangers where he served an internship in the Baseball Operations Department, handling the administration duties and research for all issues involving major league contracts, arbitration, free agency and scouting. He spent one season (2002) as an intern in the Dodgers' Public Relations Department. Hernandez also spent one season (2004) as the Head Baseball Coach for the Chaminade College Prep School Junior Varsity Baseball team in West Hills, CA.

Hernandez graduated from Arizona State University in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in Broadcast Journalism. He is single and resides in Orange.

NED BERGERT
HEAD CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

Ned Bergert enters his 35th season in the Angels organization and 19th as Head Certified Athletic Trainer. He joined the Angels staff as an assistant trainer in 1979 after beginning his professional career in 1975 as the athletic trainer for the Angels' Quad Cities minor league affiliate in Davenport, IA.

In May 2005, Bergert was chosen to receive the prestigious "Athletic Trainers Service Award" by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA). The national award is given to "athletic trainers that have achieved a degree of excellence in their field profession both on and off the field." In 1998 and 2006, he was honored with the "Special Recognition Award" from the Far West Athletic Trainers Association.

Bergert and fellow Angels athletic trainer Rick Smith also received the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year award for the 1998 season as selected by members of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS).

The Davenport, IA native is a certified member of NATA and currently serves on the NATA Honors and Awards Committee. Bergert has also served as the American League Representative for the PBATS Executive Committee. He coordinates the yearly PBATS Newsletter which features stories related to health care in professional baseball and has been instrumental in PBATS campaign to educate the public on the dangers of spit tobacco.

Bergert has been a member of Cal Poly Pomona Faculty, lecturing for the Department of Kinesiology and Health Promotions, specializing in Athletic Training Therapy and Modalities. He is active with the Boy Scouts of America (sons Chad and Scott are both Eagle Scouts) and is a merit badge counselor for the Portola District.

In addition to his involvement with many committees, Bergert has worked several years with the Orange County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, campaigning against smokeless tobacco. He was instrumental in creating a nationwide smokeless tobacco curriculum for grades kindergarten through 12.

Bergert, 54, served as the American League athletic trainer for the Major League All-Star Game in 1992 and 2002 and was the athletic trainer for the MLB All-Star Team that toured Japan during the 2004 Off-season. During the winter of 1997 represented PBATS in Japan lecturing in Kobe on baseball related injuries to several athletic and physician's groups.

In the fall of 2007, Bergert taught two classes at Cal State University, Fullerton in the Kinesiology Department. He also authored (along with physical therapist Bick Harmon and Angels Physician Dr. Lewis Yocum) a chapter on Shoulder Pathologies in the 2005 edition of the book Athletic Medicine and Sports Training.

Bergert received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Adaptive Physical Education at St. Ambrose College in 1979 and was inducted into the St. Ambrose Hall of Fame in 1992. In 2006, he earned a Masters of Science degree in Rehabilitative Science from California (PA) University. Bergert and his wife Sandy have two sons, Chad and Scott and reside in Yorba Linda.

RICK SMITH
CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

Beginning his 32nd season as a Certified Athletic Trainer for the Angels, Rick Smith previously served as the head athletic trainer for the El Paso Diablos, an Angels' double-A affiliate, before moving to the major leagues in 1978.

On Aug. 3, 2002, Smith was honored in a pre-game ceremony for his 25 years of service with the Angels (along with team medical director Dr. Lewis Yocum). He has served as an American League athletic trainer for the Major League All-Star games in 1984, 1989 and 1997. And, along with fellow Angels' athletic trainer Ned Bergert, the pair was named the Major League Athletic Training Staff of the Year for the 1998 season. The award, given yearly since 1989, is voted on by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS).

Smith, an El Paso, TX, native, was inducted into the El Paso Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 6, 2007 as part of the 20-year anniversary of the Hall of Fame. Former Angels Larry "Moose" Stubing, Ken Schrom and Jack Harris are also members of the El Paso Hall of Fame.

Smith began his career as a student athletic trainer for the University of Texas-El Paso athletic teams from 1971 until graduating in 1975. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and the California and Texas State Trainers Associations.

Smith, 55, attended Eastwood High School in El Paso, TX. He and his wife Janell have one son, Karcher, and reside in Santa Ana.

ADAM NEVALA
ASSISTANT CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

A member of the Angels' organization since 1998, Adam Nevala begins his fifth season as a major league Assistant Certified Athletic Trainer. He spent the previous six seasons as head athletic trainer for various Angels' affiliates, including triple-A Salt Lake in 2003-2004, double-A Arkansas in 2002, single-A Rancho Cucamonga in 2001, single-A Lake Elsinore in 2000, and single-A Cedar Rapids in 1999. Prior to joining Cedar Rapids, Nevala served as the assistant athletic trainer and clubhouse manager for the Angels' rookie-level Butte Copper Kings in 1998.

The Virginia, MN, native is a member of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainer's Society (PBATS). Nevala attended Arizona State University, receiving his degree in Exercise Science and Physical Education in 1997. He earned his master's degree in Rehabilitation Science at California University of Pennsylvania in 2007.

The 33-year-old Nevala (pronounced "NEV-uh-luh") is married (his wife's name is Tina) and resides in Irvine, CA.

T.J. HARRINGTON
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING SPECIALIST

T.J. Harrington begins his sixth season in the Angels' organization and second as the club's Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

Harrington first joined the Angels in 2003 as the strength and conditioning coach at triple-A Salt Lake, where he spent two seasons (2003-04). He was then hired by Niagara (NY) University as their head strength and conditioning coach (2004-05). T.J. returned to the Angels in 2006 as the organization's roving strength and conditioning coordinator for two seasons (2006-07) before taking over as the major league strength and conditioning specialist at the beginning of the 2008 season.

Harrington, 32, began his career at Siena College in Loudonville, NY, where he served as the assistant strength coach from 2001-02. He also worked as a clubhouse attendant for the independent Adirondack Lumberjacks of the Northeast League from 1995-98.

From 1999-2001, Harrington attended the University of South Carolina-Aiken, where he earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science/sports management in 2001. He earned his National Strength and Conditioning Association CSCS Certification in July of 2001. Harrington also played first base and outfield at USC-Aiken in 1999 as well as one season at Troy (AL) State University (1998) and two seasons (1995-96) at Valencia Community College in Orlando, FL. He was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the 42nd round of the 1994 free agent draft.

Harrington is single and resides in Phoenix, AZ.

DR. LEWIS YOCUM
TEAM ORTHOPEDIST

Entering his 32nd season as Team Orthopedist with the Angels, Dr. Lewis Yocum is an associate at the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic in Los Angeles.

In December 2008, Yocum was inducted as an honorary member of the Professional Baseball Athletics Trainers Society (PBATS), becoming just the second physician to earn that distinction. He also sits on the Medical Advisory Committee to the Major League Baseball Commissioner.

The Chicago, IL, native received his Bachelor of Science degree from Western Illinois University in 1969 and his M.D. degree from the University of Illinois in 1973. Yocum served his Surgery Internship (1973-74) and Residency in Orthopedic Surgery (1974-77) at McGaw Medical Center at Northwestern University. He served his Fellowship in Sports Medicine at the Kerlan Jobe Orthopedic Clinic in 1977.

Yocum currently is involved in the following professional associations: Chairman of Annual Baseball Medicine Symposium; Member of the American Orthopedic Society Sports Medicine; American Shoulder and Elbow Society and the Arthroscopy Association of America.

He also served as President of the Association of Professional Baseball Physicians in 1984 and was selected as the team physician for the Major League All-Star Baseball Team that toured Japan in October 1993. On Aug. 3, 2002, he was honored in a pre-game ceremony for his 25 years of service with the Angels, along with team athletic trainer, Rick Smith.

DR. CRAIG MILHOUSE
TEAM PHYSICIAN

Beginning his 15th season as Team Physician with the Angels, Dr. Craig Milhouse serves in the same capacity with the Anaheim Ducks and the Fullerton Junior College Athletic department.

Milhouse's current professional duties also include his private practice in Internal Medicine and Athletic Medicine in Orange, CA and role as Medical Consultant for the Honda Center of Anaheim. He previously served for 10 years at the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic in Anaheim, CA.

A native of Detroit, MI, Milhouse received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Michigan in 1976 and Medical Degree from Wayne State University School of Medicine in 1980. He completed his Medicine/Surgery Internship at St. John's Hospital in Detroit, MI (1980-81) and his Internal Medicine Residency at Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena, CA (1981-84). Milhouse served his Sports Medicine Fellowship at Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic in Inglewood, CA (1990-91) and received his Board Certification in Internal Medicine in 1984.

Milhouse, 54, has worked as Team Physician for the Los Angeles Rams (1993-95), the University of Southern California (1988-93), Occidental College (1992-93), Anaheim Bullfrogs, Anaheim Piranhas and Anaheim Splash. In 2003, Milhouse served as the Medical Director for the World Gymnastics Championships and has been a voluntary member of the Tournament of Roses for the past 21 years. He and wife Pamela have two sons, Jonathan and Alex.

DR. ORR LIMPISVASTI
ORTHOPEDIC CONSULTANT

Dr. Orr Limpisvasti begins his fifth season as an Orthopedic Consultant for Angels Baseball. He is an orthopedic surgeon and sports medicine specialist at the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic (Anaheim and Los Angeles). He also serves as an assistant team physician for the Los Angeles Kings, Anaheim Ducks, Los Angeles Galaxy and Los Angeles Lakers.

Dr. Limpisvasti earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of California Irvine in 1994 and his Doctor of Medicine degree from the University of Rochester (NY) School of Medicine and Dentistry in 1998. He completed his General Surgery Internship and Orthopedic Surgery Residency at the University of Hawaii (1998-2003) and his Sports Medicine Fellowship at the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic in 2004.

Dr. Limpisvasti is a member in the following professional associations: the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons, the Arthroscopy Association of North America and the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine.

KEN HIGDON
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Entering his 32nd season in professional baseball and 17th with the Angels, Ken Higdon serves as the Angels Equipment Manager. He is responsible for the purchase and maintenance of equipment, supplies and uniforms for the Angels, while attending to the day-to-day needs of the Angels' players.

The Seattle, WA native began his career with the Angels in 1987 as the equipment manager for the Angels' minor league affiliate in Mesa, AZ. Higdon was then appointed equipment manager for the Angels prior to the 1994 season. He began his career in baseball in 1978 as the equipment manager of the Tacoma Tigers, then a triple-A affiliate of the Oakland Athletics.

Higdon, 46, resides in Irvine.

BRIAN "BUBBA" HARKINS
VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Beginning his 20th season as Visiting Clubhouse Manager, Brian Harkins oversees the clubhouse and equipment needs for all Angels' opponents at Angel Stadium. He began his career with the organization in 1981 when he served as an Angels' batboy for three seasons (1981-1983).

After a brief stint outside the organization, Harkins returned to the Angels in 1986 as a clubhouse attendant. He was then promoted to Assistant Visiting Clubhouse Manager and Umpires' Room Attendant in 1988. Harkins was appointed Visiting Clubhouse Manager in 1990. He was honored as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager of the Year by Major Leaque Equipment Managers in 2005.

An Anaheim, CA native, Harkins graduated from Anaheim's Katella High in 1984 and played baseball at Mt. San Antonio Community College (Walnut, CA) in 1985. He is a member of the MLB Equipment Managers Association Scholarship Committee that awards academic scholarships to MLB batboys.

Harkins, 42, and his wife Cathey have two daughters, Hayley and Hannah, and a son, Hayden. The family resides in Placentia.

KEITH TARTER
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Tarter begins his 19th season in the Angels' organization and 15th as the assistant equipment manager. He first joined the organization in 1991, serving as an Angels' batboy for three seasons (1991-93). Tarter was promoted to the clubhouse staff in 1994 before assuming his current role in 1995.

An Anaheim, CA, native, Tarter graduated from Katella High School. He also attended Rancho Santiago Community College in Santa Ana, CA, before studying landscape design at Fullerton (CA) Community College.

Tarter and his wife Lisa reside in Corona with their twins Kash and Emma.

THE NICK KAMZIC AWARD - SCOUT OF THE YEAR

The Nick Kamzic Award is given annually to the Angels' scout who epitomizes the dedication, perseverance and excellence demonstrated by the award's namesake. Nick Kamzic, a Chicago-based scout in the Angels' organization for 39 seasons, joined the franchise in its initial 1961 season (he proudly called himself "Mr. Autry's first hire") and continued scouting for the Angels through the 1999 season. Named the National Scout of the Year (Midwest) in 1996, he passed away from heart failure, Dec. 12, 2000, one week before his 82nd birthday. Like the many hard-working and dedicated scouts who proudly represent baseball throughout the nation, the following individuals demonstrate those special qualities that have earned them recognition as the Angels' Scout of the Year:

1996 — Moose Stubing
1997 — Darrell Miller
1998 — Tony LaCava
1999 — Tom Burns
2000 — Tim Corcoran
2001 — Marc Russo/Leo Perez
2002 — Kevin Ham
2003 — Clay Daniel/Rich Schlenker
2004 — Mike Silvestri/Dale Sutherland
2005 — Ron Marigny/Brad Sloan
2006 — Jack Uhey/Jeff Schugel
2007 — Tom Kotchman
2008 — Chris McAlpin

FS WEST™

Fox Sports WEST enters its 17th season as telecast partner to the Los Angeles Angels. Analyst Rex Hudler and Play-by-Play Announcer Steve Physioc return for their eleventh year together in the Angels telecast booth. In addition, Analyst Mark Gubicza and Play-by-Play Announcer Rory Markas unite for their second season in the booth.

Fox Sports WEST is the home to "Angels Live." Originating live from Angels Stadium and on the road, "Angels Live" provides unmatched access to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. Featuring a 30-minute pre-game and full post-game coverage, "Angels Live" is a true extension of the game. Led by Bill Macdonald, the Fox Sports WEST Angels Baseball reporting team and analysts are everywhere at once, telling the stories of the game and sharing expert insight. Connected, original, fast-paced and fun, "Angels Live" on Fox Sports WEST keeps Angels fans entertained and informed.

Angels live event coverage on Fox Sports features the X-mo to create opportunities for the Fox Sports WEST analysts to share perspective and expertise with an up-to-the-moment illustration. X-mo is the highest speed broadcast camera available. Its use provides sports fans an extremely specific look on the game, from clarifying a crucial play by significantly slowing it down, to illustrating the tremendous impact absorbed by a baseball upon contact with a bat.

In 2008, Fox Sports WEST and sister station PRIME TICKET received a total of 15 Los Angeles Area Emmy Award nominations and were honored with an Emmy in each of the following categories: Best Sports Tease, Best Sports Series and Best Short Promo. Since 1997, Fox Sports WEST and its sister network PRIME TICKET have won 42 Emmy Awards for excellence in local sports reporting and event coverage.

Legendary Angels Broadcaster Dick Enberg

In addition to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, Fox Sports WEST is the telecast destination for the most comprehensive coverage of the Los Angeles Lakers, Los Angeles Kings and Los Angeles Galaxy. Together, Fox Sports WEST and sister network PRIME TICKET present more live, local sports programming than any other network or broadcast system in Southern California, Nevada and Hawaii. For complete national and regional sports news, provocative opinions, telecast schedules and updated statistics, log-on to www.foxsports.com.

AM830 KLAA enters its second year as the English flagship station of the Los Angeles Angels. The broadcast team of Rory Markas and Terry Smith team up for their eighth season in the Angels radio booth.

In addition, Steve Physioc and Rex Hudler will also share broadcast duties on the radio with Markas and Smith. Physioc enters his 14th season with Angels organization, while Hudler enters his 11th campaign.

AM830 will provide ancillary programming before and after every game broadcast, with longtime veteran of the LA airwaves Jeff Biggs contributing to Postgame "Angel Talk" and filling in for Terry Smith on travel days.

The sportsLODGE with Roger Lodge and Dave Smith is LA's only local sportstalk in the morning. If it happens in LA, it happens in the sportsLODGE, which airs weekday mornings 6 a.m. - 10 a.m., with a daily appearance on the KTLA Channel 5 morning show, LA's top rated morning newscast.

The Drive with Dave Smith airs weekday afternoons 3 p.m. - 7 p.m. on AM830 and often leads right into Angel programming. Dave is a four-time winner of the Daily News Best Sportstalk Host in Los Angeles and has been on local radio for 17 years.

AM830 is also the flagship station of the NHL's Anaheim Ducks, and is the Southern California home for Notre Dame Fighting Irish Football.

KWKW ESPN Deportes (1330 AM) is in their second year as the Spanish-language play-by-play home of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim this season. Jose Mota will deliver the exciting play-by-play action of Angels Baseball.

In 1941, at the beginning of World War II, the Federal Communications Commission awarded KWKW its license to broadcast and inform the Hispanic Population of Los Angeles the news about the war. This took place from the basement of a hotel on Colorado Street in Pasadena.

At a later date KWKW moved to 800 Sierra Madre Villa in Pasadena, where many of today's famous announcers began their careers in Spanish Radio.

In 1962 Lotus Communications Corporation bought KWKW. Since that time Howard Kalmenson, owner and founder of Lotus Communications, has been able to acquire 24 radio stations which broadcast in English and Spanish as well as Lotus Hispanic Reps, a National Rep firm with offices across the country. All this was possible because of KWKW.

In January 1989, when KWKW switched from 1300 to 1330 on the AM dial, the broadcast coverage area more than doubled. KWKW is one of the leading Spanish language radio stations in the United States. An excellent signal, popular personalities, outstanding news, sports, and in-depth public service and community involvement guarantee KWKW's long term success in the dominant Mexican and Latino communities of Los Angeles. Most importantly, the combination of KWKW's professional on-the-air sound, excellent commercial environment, and receptive family audience, has proven over many years to sell advertisers' products and services.

STEVE PHYSIOC
TELEVISION/RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Steve Physioc returns for his 14th season as the television play-by-play voice of Angels baseball on FOX Sports Net West and KCOP. When not calling the action for FS West and KCOP in 2008, Physioc can be heard on AM 830 with Terry Smith and Rex Hudler.

Physioc began his major league play-by-play announcing career in 1983, broadcasting Cincinnati Bengals football and Cincinnati Reds baseball games for WLWT-TV until 1987. He then served as the San Francisco Giants announcer for KTVU-TV from 1987-88, followed by work for ESPN (1989-95), announcing Major League Baseball, college basketball, baseball and Big Ten football. In 1995, he announced San Diego Padres games and PAC-10 football games for FOX Sports West. Additionally, Physioc served as the radio voice of Kansas State football and basketball (1979-1982), was television voice for Fresno State football and basketball (1987-94); announced college basketball and football at Stanford (1992-95) and handled play-by-play duties for the 1993 Pigskin Classic.

Physioc's previous experience also includes radio play-by-play for the NBA's Golden State Warriors (1989-90), television play-by-play for Warriors games (1990-91) and the Vancouver Grizzlies during their inaugural season (1995-96) in the NBA. In addition, Physioc served as sports anchor for WIBW-TV (1979-83) in Topeka, KS, was the sports director at WLWT-TV from (1983-87) and sports director and anchor for KTVU-TV (1987-89) in Oakland, CA .

During the winter, Physioc broadcasts college basketball games for ESPN. Physioc also supports The Kidsingers,The Children of the Sun Foundation, the Christian Children's Fund, and "Team Up for Down Syndrome". A graduate of Kansas State University (1977), he and his wife Stacey make their home in Trabuco Canyon with their daughter Ryan and son Kevin.

REX HUDLER
TELEVISION/RADIO COLOR ANALYST

Rex Hudler enters his 11th season alongside Steve Physioc as the Angels' baseball analyst on FS West and KCOP. A veteran of 30 years in professional baseball, 21 as a player, Hudler, nicknamed "Wonder Dog" during his playing career, played three seasons as a fan favorite for the Angels (1994-96) as an infielder and outfielder. In his final season with the club, Hudler recorded a .311 average and career-high 16 home runs in 92 games.

During his professional career (1978-1998), Hudler played for 18 different teams, including a 1993 stint in Japan. In 774 career major league games, Hudler registered a .261 average with 56 home runs and 169 RBI. His minor league career consisted of 1,083 games.

Born in Tempe, AZ and a 1978 graduate of Bullard High School (Fresno, CA), Hudler played baseball, soccer and football, earning first-team All-America honors as a wide receiver. He was a 1999 inductee into the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame. His talent landed him 25 football scholarship offers and upon which he signed a letter of intent to play at Notre Dame. He was drafted and signed by the Yankees right out of high school.

Hudler is an award winning broadcaster who began his broadcasting career as a special correspondent for "Good Morning America" during the 1997 playoffs, World Series and 1998 Super Bowl. He was honored as the 2003, 2005 and 2007 Television Color analyst by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters for his work on Angels broadcasts for KCAL and Fox Sports Net. He won an Emmy in 2004 for "Angels in the Infield". Hudler is also featured as the color commentator alongside Jon Miller on ESPN's 2004 MLB video game, Sega's MLB 2K3 video game, and the 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2009 MLB "The Show" video game.

Hudler is active in Angels' baseball clinics and makes motivational speaking engagements throughout the year. Hudler and his wife Jennifer founded "Team Up for Down Syndrome" to help support the Down Syndrome community nationwide. In February 2002, the Goodwill Industries of Orange County honored Hudler with the Walter Knott Service Award. The Hudlers were also awarded the 2007 Humanitarian Award by Stillpoint Resources. In 2008 they were given the "Changing The World" award by Chapman University.

Hudler can be reached through his website, www.RexHudler.com and his new book, "Splinters", is available for purchase there. The couple has four children, Alyssa, Cade, William and David and reside in Orange County.

RORY MARKAS
TELEVISION/RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Markas returns for his eigth season as the play-by-play voice of the Angels on AM 830 KLAA. He will also serve as the television play-by-play voice for select games alongside Mark Gubicza on Fox Sports West and KCOP. In addition to his baseball duties, Markas also serves as the play-by-play voice for the University of Southern California (USC) men's basketball team and a reporter for FOX 11 KTTV in Los Angeles.

Prior to joining the Angels, Markas handled the play-by-play duties for the USC baseball team on the Trojan Radio Network, as well as a pre-game reporter of Trojan football. During that time, Markas was also a sports reporter on KNX Newsradio 1070 in Los Angeles and a sports anchor on FOX 11 KTTV. From 1994-97, he was the lead announcer for the NBA's Los Angeles Clippers on the Clippers radio network.

Markas has extensive baseball broadcasting experience as he has worked as a play-by-play announcer for the Milwaukee Brewers television network (1992-94) and as a substitute radio play-by-play announcer with the Brewers radio network from 1984-1994. He spent six seasons (1981-87) calling Pacific Coast League baseball, including three years with the Salt Lake City Gulls and three years with the Vancouver Canadians.

Markas' career has included stints as an on-air sports talent on KCBS 2 (1990-97) and Prime Ticket (1987-90). He has been honored with several broadcasting awards, including four Golden Mike Awards for radio reporting and two Associated Press Sportscasting Awards. He also received the 2008 Radio Play-by-Play Award from the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association.

A native of San Fernando Valley, Markas attended Chatsworth High School and played baseball. He attended Los Angeles Valley College and Cal State Northridge. He is single and lives in Palmdale, California.

TERRY SMITH
RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Terry Smith enters his eigth season alongside Rory Markas on the Angels' flagship radio station, AM 830, KLAA. Smith also hosts the Angels' post-game call-in show "Angel Talk" and the Angels' hot stove program "Angels Tonight".

Smith joined the Angels in 2002 after serving as the radio voice of the New York Yankees' Triple-A affiliate Columbus Clippers for 19 seasons. From 1983-1997, Smith also served as Sports Director at WBNS AM in Columbus, Ohio. Smith was recognized three times by the Ohio Associated Press for his sportscasts and WBNS AM was named the Outstanding Sports Operation in Ohio six times by the Associated Press. Smith worked as a sports anchor, talk show host and was simply known as "The Voice" serving as play-by-play announcer for the Ohio State University Football and Basketball Radio Network from 1986-1997.

Smith started his baseball broadcasting career in 1978, calling games for the Jacksonville Suns and later called games for the Memphis Chicks from 1981-82. At Memphis, Smith also worked as the Sports Director on WHBQ AM, anchoring sports on the morning and afternoon drive shows.

The Philadelphia, PA native attended Temple University, where he played collegiate club hockey, as well as Jones College in Jacksonville, FL which has produced the likes of actors Joe Piscapo and Jay Thomas. In February, 2002 Smith made his on-screen debut as a broadcaster in the baseball movie "A Little Inside", which aired on HBO and Showtime. He assists in Angels Community Relations with appearances. He has served as Honorary Chair of the Orange County Learning for Life's Exploring program. Smith and his wife Sonia have one son, Jordan, a student at UC Santa Barbara and make their home in Ladera Ranch, CA.

JOSÉ MOTA
TELEVISION PRE AND POST GAME

José Mota returns for his eigth season in the Spanish radio booth (KWKW). The Emmy Award winning Mota served as the third broadcaster during Angels telecasts on KCAL 9 for two seasons (2004-05). In 2006 he joined Fox Sports Net as a member of the pre and post-game shows. Additionally, he provided his talent for the 2006 & 2009 World Baseball Classics and on selected Sunday Night Baseball telecasts. Mota handles the color analyst and play-by-play duties for selected national broadcasts during Saturday's Game of the Week on FOX and has provided coverage for numerous All-Star and Post Season game broadcasts. Mota has co-hosted World Series specials for ESPN Radio in addition to the Angels' hot-stove show "Angels Tonight" during the off-season on AM830. He currently serves as TV pre/post-game and studio analyst with Fox Sports West and KCOP-13 on the Angels' broadcast package. Last season he joined Yahoo Sports as a baseball analyst.

A bilingual talent, Mota joined the Angels in 2002 after working as a broadcaster for MLB Radio. With MLB Productions, Mota served as an International production consultant for the NBC special and 2001 ALMA and Emmy Award-nominated "Baseball: The Latin Passion". José was also the featured host in a Sammy Sosa documentary released by VisionQuest. During the 2001 season, Mota worked as a play-by-play announcer for DirectTV Latin America which provided weekly intercontinental Major League Baseball broadcast coverage to 26 Latin American countries. He served as the featured analyst for MLB Productions' "Sabor a Béisbol" , its weekly Spanish-language feature and highlight show available to national and international audiences.

From 1997 until his current appointment, José has served as a color analyst/play-by-play announcer for the FOX baseball "Game of the Week" in Spanish, including MLB post-season play, and for the "NFL Sunday" football broadcasts. He has been a guest play-by-play announcer for the Los Angeles Dodgers' Spanish broadcasts, sitting in for Hall-of-Famer Jaime Jarrin. In 2007 Mota was honored by Metro Publications as one of the "Hottest 25 in Orange County".

A former Major League baseball player with the San Diego Padres (1991) and Kansas City Royals (1995), Mota was originally drafted by the Chicago White Sox in 1985. He was a two-time Collegiate All-American second baseman at Cal State Fullerton and owns a bachelors degree in Communications from CSF. He was the starting second baseman for the 1984 National Champion Titans. In 1999, Jose made his film debut in Kevin Costner's Universal Studios release "For Love of the Game" in which he portrayed Dominican shortstop "José Garcia".

A native of Santo Domingo, DR Mota is the son of longtime Dodger Manny Mota. He and his family make their home in Glendora, CA.

MARK GUBICZA
TELEVISION COLOR ANALYST

Former Major League Baseball veteran Mark Gubicza is entering his eigth year with FS WEST and FS PRIME TICKET. He will team with Rory Markas in the booth to provide color commentary on Fox Sports West in 2009. This season will also mark his fourth as analyst for the Angels' pre- and post-game shows, now known as "Angels Live".

Gubicza also co-hosts the "FS Baseball Report," which airs nationally on Fox Sports, previewing future match-ups and breaking down current standings in the league. In 2004, Gubicza also provided analysis for Minnesota Twins games from Los Angeles. He made his first television appearance as an analyst for FSN in April 2000 on "Baseball Today" and the "National Sports Report." He also hosted the "Southern California Baseball Report" on AM570 for three years.

In his professional baseball career, Gubicza spent 14 seasons in the Major League. Drafted in 1981, he went on to spend 13 seasons with the Kansas City Royals until 1996. With the club, he won a World Championship in 1985, won 20 games in 1988, and today still holds the single-game record for most strikeouts with 14. In both 1988 and 1989, he was named to the MLB All-Star teams. He finished his career with the Angels in 1997. To honor his many accomplishments on the field, he was recently named to the Kansas City Royals Hall of Fame as well as the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame in 2006.

Gubicza lives in Chatsworth, Calif., with his wife, and their three children.

ROLANDO NICHOLS
SPANISH RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Rolando Nichols has 13 years of experience in Broadcast Media as a journalist, news and sports anchor/reporter. Rolando started his career in radio, broadcasting AAA baseball and NCAA football games in Tucson, AZ. His first television job was at Telemundo in Tucson as a master control operator. He worked his way up to an on-air position in Tucson and then in 1997 became the prime-time news anchor for the Univision affiliate in Phoenix. He eventually became the main news anchor for the most watched local newscast in the country at Univision's flagship Los Angeles station, KMEX-34.

As a journalist, in 2005 Rolando received the highest recognition in broadcast media, the prestigious Peabody Award. Nichols has won the Edward R. Murrow Award for excellence in media, a Regional Emmy, a Gabriel Award among others for his journalistic work.

Rolando played professional baseball in the Mexican Summer League before starting his career as a broadcaster. He signed his first professional contract at age 15 with the "Naranjeros", from his native hometown Hermosillo, Sonora Mexico. Rolando was part of the Mexico City Red Devils and Veracruz Eagles organizations in the mid 90's.

Rolando is the founder, of the dynamic CENTER FOR EDUCATION IN TV and Radio, a top-of-the-line broadcast training facility and CENTRO Net Productions, a cutting-edge media production house located in the Los Angeles area.

Nichols holds a Bachelor of Arts in Broadcast Journalism from The Walter Cronkite School of Journalism at Arizona State University.

DARREN CHAN
PRODUCER/ENGINEER

Darren Chan enters his ninth season as the Producer/Engineer for Angels' English radio broadcasts for the 2009 baseball season. Chan is responsible for all of the technical aspects of each broadcast in addition to forwarding updated game information to all announcers. During the off-season, Chan also serves as the radio engineer for Los Angeles Lakers' home games.

Prior to joining the Angels, Chan was the Promotions and Marketing Director for CNET Radio in San Francisco (2000-01). He also served as a production and promotions coordinator at KKSF and KABL (Oakland Athletics' flagship radio station).

Chan has an extensive background in the radio/broadcasting business as he was the Sports Director/Executive Producer at KTCT (Flagship radio station for the Oakland Raiders and Stanford Athletics) in San Francisco (1997-99). He also served as an on-air morning show co-host and provided NFL updates on the Raiders radio network. Chan spent two years (1995-97) as the Executive Producer of the Westwood One nationally syndicated sports talk show "Ferrall on the Bench." He began his radio career as a producer at KNBR (flagship radio station of the San Francisco Giants) from 1990-95.

A native of San Francisco, Chan attended San Francisco State University. He and his wife Lily reside in Chino, CA.

The expansion franchise Los Angeles Angels were born in 1960, and played their first game in 1961. Named "Angels" for the English translation and nickname ("The City of Angels") of the city, the club remained in Los Angeles from 1961-65, before moving to Anaheim in 1966. The organization officially became the California Angels in Sept., 1965 to coincide with a uniform change the following season, and has remained in Anaheim since the move in 1966. On Nov. 19, 1996, the California Angels were renamed the Anaheim Angels in a press conference held at Anaheim Stadium to also announce a uniform change. On Jan. 3, 2005, the team announced its official name to be the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. The inclusion of Los Angeles reflects the original expansion name and returns the Angels as Major League Baseball's American League representative in the Greater Los Angeles territory.

On Jan. 9, 2002, the Angels unveiled their new official team colors and logos featuring red as the dominant color for the first time in club history. The announcement represented the seventh uniform change in franchise history. The look to the Angels' logo and uniforms captures the tradition of Angel baseball and a contemporary "back to basics" flare. The logo features the signature halo surrounding the "A," while the uniforms are reminiscent of decades past.

The Angels selected red, dark red, navy and silver as their colors. The red and navy that have been the team's official colors since the inaugural season have been maintained. The official Angels logo consists of the block letter "A" in red, including dark red shading along the outside of the left side, inside the right side and bottom of the cross of the "A". A silver halo circles the top of the "A", filled with navy. The same navy outlines the "A" as well as the halo.

Both home and road uniforms follow the traditional look of jerseys past. The club wears black belts, red stirrups and black shoes. Helmets are similar in color and logo to the home and road cap. Large numerals in red outlined in blue and silver with the players last name in red outlined in blue and silver will appear on the back of all jerseys. A smaller number in red outlined in blue and silver appears below the script on the left side of all jerseys.

The Angels' home uniforms include a red cap and bill, official club logo and red button. Jersey is button down, white in color, with red piping around neck and arms. Red ANGELS script appears on front, with silver halo circling top of the 'A'. Script is outlined in blue and silver. Pants are white with red piping down each leg.

The Angels' road uniforms include a red cap and bill, official club logo and red button. Jersey is button down, gray in color, with red piping around neck and sleeves. Red ANGELS appears on front, with silver halo circling top of the 'A'. Script is outlined in blue and silver. Pants are gray with red piping down each leg.

The Angels' alternate road uniforms include a red cap and bill, official club logo and red button. Jersey is a sleeveless button down, white in color with red piping around neck and armholes worn with red undershirt. Red ANGELS script will appear on front, with silver halo circling top of 'A'. Script is outlined in blue and silver. The Angels' ALTERNATE UNIFORM used for home or road games include a red cap and bill, official club logo and red button. Jersey is button down, red in color, with silver piping around neck and arms. Red ANGELS script will appear on front, with silver halo circling top of 'A'. Script is outlined in blue and silver.

The practice uniforms, which are the same jerseys worn at Spring Training, include a blue cap with official club logo, red bill and button. Jersey is red mesh with official club logo located on top left. Large white numbers appear on back of jersey.

ANGELS BASEBALL FOUNDATION

The Angels have been active in the community throughout the team's 48-year history. In addition to the success the team has enjoyed on the field, the Angels organization and its players are involved in numerous charitable organizations throughout the community.

Six years ago, the Angels created the Angels Baseball Foundation with goals of becoming even more involved in a variety of outreach programs and non-profit organizations. Since its inception, the Angels Baseball Foundation has granted nearly $2 million toward local causes, almost all involving children. From laying down the foundation one brick at a time with the Angels Brick Project to helping fund local and national youth organizations, the Angels Baseball Foundation focuses on initiatives aimed to create and improve education, healthcare, arts & sciences, and community related youth programs throughout the region, in addition to providing children the opportunity to experience the great game of baseball and its countless positive attributes.

A few of the more notable community programs that the Angels support each season include:

HONORING OUR COMMUNITY AT THE BALLPARK:

Angels Scholars

The Angels have teamed up with the Orange County Office of Education and the AVID Program to create Angels Scholars. Entering its fourth year, the Angels Scholars program will award college scholarships to five academically talented, financially disadvantaged public middle school students in Orange County. The Angels Baseball Foundation will award each Angels Scholar $4,000 (plus accrued interest) upon their acceptance into a four-year college. The scholarship will help ease the costs of the Scholars' college tuition and books.

Each school in Orange County offering the AVID Program in eighth-grade can nominate one student for the Angels Scholars scholarship. The AVID Program is an in-school academic support program for sixth through twelfth grades that prepares students for college eligibility and success. It levels the playing field for minority, rural, low-income and other students without a college-going tradition in their families. Like the first three classes of Scholars, the 2009 Angels Scholars will be honored during a pre-game ceremony at an Angels game.

Outstanding Students

The Angels annually honor high school students and teams who have earned recognition through athletic and scholastic achievement in the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF). CIF and the Angels honor local high school athletic teams based on a cumulative grade point average. Recipients of the individual awards are seniors who have maintained a minimum 3.5 grade point average in college-prep courses over the past three years, in addition to earning a letter in at least one Varsity sport and participating in an additional extracurricular activity. Students are honored on the field during pre-game ceremonies and given tickets to enjoy a night of Angels Baseball.

Going to Bat Against Breast Cancer

The Angels will again join Major League Baseball and Susan G. Komen for the Cure for the 2009 Strikeout Challenge. Each strikeout recorded in all games played the week of Mother's Day raises money for the fight against breast cancer in America. Game-used bases, lineup cards, and the ceremonial home plate will be auctioned off, with funds benefiting the Komen for the Cure Breast Cancer Foundation. On Mother's Day, players throughout the league support the cause by wearing pink wristbands and pink ribbons on their uniforms. Many players also choose to play with special pink bats on Mother's Day.

Father's Day Home Run Challenge

The Angels and Major League Baseball are committed to the fight against prostate cancer. In 2009 they will continue their partnership with the Prostate Cancer Foundation for the 2009 Home Run Challenge. In its twelfth year of raising money for the cure of prostate cancer, the Home Run Challenge takes place the week prior to Father's Day with events scheduled at stadiums across the nation. During the Home Run Challenge, fans make a monetary pledge for each home run hit during the week's games, including all games played on Father's Day. All money raised throughout the week goes directly toward prostate cancer research. On Father's Day, players, managers, coaches, trainers, umpires and groundskeepers across the league show their support by wearing blue wristbands, uniform decals, blue anti-glare and temporary blue ribbon tattoos.

Little League Days

In their efforts to support youth baseball and softball in the surrounding community, the Angels offer a unique fundraising program for all Little Leagues to participate on a district-wide level. Typically 9,000 to 10,000 children, families and friends attend one of the five designated games. In addition to offering discounted tickets for the groups, Little Leaguers are invited to parade around the field one hour prior to the game with their respective teams. Twenty minutes prior to the game, 25 pre-selected Little Leaguers are given the opportunity to stand on the field and obtain autographs from various Angels' players and coaches. They then take the field with the players during the National Anthem.

Aquafina MLB Pitch, Hit & Run Competition

The Angels are pleased to host the Aquafina MLB Pitch, Hit & Run local final competition at Angel Stadium of Anaheim. The local competitions provide youth across North America with an integrated competition that recognizes individual excellence in core baseball skills. In 2008, the program reached more than 600,000 participants between the ages of seven and 14 through more than 3,900 local competitions. In 2009, the top four competitors nationwide from each of the four age divisions are then invited to compete in the national finals and advance to the Finals at Busch Stadium during the 2009 All-Star Week in St. Louis. After the final competition, participants have the opportunity to field balls during the Home Run Derby and attend the All-Star Game.

Equipment Day

The Angels and the Baseball Tomorrow Fund will host their fourth Equipment Drive in the fall of 2009. Over the past three seasons, hundreds of fans have donated new or used baseball and softball equipment as well as $3,500 in monetary donations. In 2008, all equipment collected was donated to the North Anaheim Little League. During a pre-game ceremony, the Angels and the Baseball Tomorrow Fund also presented North Anaheim Little League with a $5,000 grant to help purchase new equipment.

Angels Canned Food Drives

The Angels hold two annual canned food drives to benefit the Second Harvest Food Bank. Fans are given the opportunity to step up to the plate at Angel Stadium of Anaheim and support their local community. In the Thanksgiving spirit, Angels' Groundskeepers hold a drive the weekend before Thanksgiving. Fans have another opportunity to give during the Freeway Series, when the Angels host the Dodgers.

Making Wishes Come True

The Angels often receive requests to help grant the wishes of children with life-threatening medical conditions. Working closely with the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the Angels are pleased to have Wish Kids and their families as their guests. They have the opportunity to come down to the field to meet the team and chat with their favorite players. Afterwards everyone is treated to an exciting night of Angels Baseball.

Light the Night®

The Angels partner with The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society each year to host the Light the Night Walk at Angel Stadium of Anaheim. This special fundraising walk is an annual celebration and commemoration of lives touched by cancer. All walkers carry balloons: cancer patients and survivors carry white illuminated balloons, while cancer supporters carry red illuminated balloons.

ANGELS IN THE OUTFIELD:

Angels Baseball Youth Clinics

On Saturday afternoons during selected homestands, the Angels host youth baseball and softball clinics throughout Southern California. The clinics are arranged with the assistance of local parks and recreation departments and aim to reach as many youths as possible in the community. The goal is to not only teach the proper fundamentals of the game of baseball and softball, but also the fun that can be had while playing. Angels players, coaches, and Alumni assist for a great afternoon of baseball. The clinics are free and open to children ages 14 and under.

Mike Scioscia's Youth Baseball Clinic

Every year, Angels Manager Mike Scioscia joins the Amateur Baseball Development Group and over 300 kids for the Mike Scioscia's Amateur Baseball Development Group Clinic in Thousand Oaks. Angels players, coaches and broadcasters annually attend to share their love of baseball with the group. The free clinic provides the kids with an opportunity to hone their baseball skills and test out their Angels' trivia knowledge.

Rookie Ball

The Angels Rookie Ball program began in 1992 and is designed to reach children between the ages of four and 13 years old to teach them the basics of the game of baseball. The program runs throughout the country through a partnership with MLB.

The Angels partner with the cities of Anaheim and Riverside to provide Rookie Ball to local children. In these two areas alone, the program reaches over 1,000 youths each year. The Angels contribute funds to be spent on materials needed to operate the program, such as catcher's equipment, bats, helmets, baseballs, pitching machines, gloves and bases.

Adopt-A-School

In 2009, the Angels selected their second class of adopted high schools and elementary schools for the Adopt-A-School program. The five high schools will each receive a $2,500 grant to go toward their baseball and softball programs. The Angels will honor each of these schools at a 2009 regular season home game.

As a part of the Adopt-A-School program in the elementary schools, every student receives an Angels school supplies pack and each school will be given an allotment of tickets for the 2009 season to be used in their incentive programs. The Angels Baseball Foundation will also present each elementary school with a $1,000 grant to go toward their reading programs.

Home Run Readers

This summer, the Angels Baseball Foundation and local libraries will launch Home Run Readers at over 40 libraries throughout Orange County. This summer reading program encourages children to read by providing Angels incentives and visits from the Angels Strike Force. Readers will also receive raffle tickets to enter to win an opportunity to attend an Angels game and one winner will have the chance to be the Honorary Play Ball Announcer. The ticket winners from each library will also be introduced on the field during a Home Run Readers pre-game ceremony.

Read Across America Day

Every March, the Angels join schools across Southern California to celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday on Read Across America Day. In conjunction with the National Education Association's Read Across America event, Angels Alumni, Strike Force and front office staff attended local schools to read aloud in classrooms and share the importance of reading.

Hospital Visits

Throughout the season, Angels players and their wives visit local hospitals to lift the spirits of the patients and their families. Players and coaches make special appearances to distribute Angels items, sign autographs, and visit with the children and their families. The Angels often visit Miller Children's Hospital at Long Beach Memorial, Children's Hospital of Orange County and UCI Children's Hospital.

Strike Force Visits

The Angels Strike Force helps represent the organization by making appearances throughout the community. They annually make a special appearance at Orange View Junior High School in Anaheim to support Red Ribbon Week and Club Live, a club that encourages kids to stay off drugs. They also participate in the Angels Baseball Foundation Golf Classic, Home Run Readers library visits, and hospital and Adopt-A-School visits.

Speakers Bureau

The Angels are proud to provide speakers for local charitable, educational and civic groups. Former Angels share their insight about the Angels organization as well as their experiences and memories as a ballplayer. Former Angels including Dave Frost, Bobby Grich, Jay Johnstone, Jim Anderson, Kevin Flora and Clyde Wright participate.

RBI™ LEAGUE

ANGELS AND THE BOYS & GIRLS CLUBS:

Angels RBI League

Angels Baseball, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Orange County and Major League Baseball partnered together to create the Angels' Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) League. This youth program, offered to Orange County Boys & Girls Club members, provides an opportunity for 12 to 18-year-olds to play baseball and softball and learn important life skills. The RBI League provides kids who would otherwise not have the chance the opportunity to play baseball and softball in an organized league. On the field, RBI concentrates on fundamentals and teamwork, while stressing citizenship and academics. Off the field, Boys & Girls Club staff teaches RBI players the pillars of QuickSmart (Skills Mastery and Resistance Training). This nationally acclaimed Boys & Girls Club prevention program is designed specifically for RBI and assists youths in learning how to make smart choices regarding alcohol, tobacco, and other drug use.

All RBI League players receive a full game uniform and a league cap. Participants are also provided with catcher's gear, bats, balls and helmets. The league provides umpires for all games while Boys & Girls Club staff oversees the operation of the games and the playing fields.

The Angels RBI League emphasizes the joy of playing baseball and softball and personal development above all else. From this experience each player may build his or her very own Field of Dreams. For more information about RBI, you may call (714) 619-8416, or email rbi@everykid.org

Angels RBI Clinics

Each year, the Angels RBI League hosts morning Baseball and Softball Clinics in the outfield of Angel Stadium of Anaheim. Members of the league work on their fielding, batting, sliding, and pitching skills in the outfield with Boys & Girls Club staff, local coaches, and Angels' players and coaches. They also learn about QuickSMART, a prevention program designed to give kids the skills to make wise choices in their daily lives. The clinic provided the RBI players with many new skills as well as many great memories of playing on a big league field.

Breaking Barriers

In 2008, over 200 members of the Angels' RBI League came together at the Newport Sports Museum to meet Angels General Manager Tony Reagins. The RBI players were bussed in from the surrounding community through grant money that the Angels Baseball Foundation had awarded to the Museum. They had the opportunity to tour the museum and learn the history of sports and various barriers that have been broken by a variety of athletes. Later, Reagins shared experiences of his times in his own Boys & Girls Club and then spoke with the attendees about breaking down barriers in their every day lives.

ANGELS BASEBALL FOUNDATION:

Angels Baseball Foundation Alumni Golf Classic

The Angels annually host the Angels Baseball Foundation Alumni Golf Classic, sponsored by Brand Affinity Technologies in 2008, at Pelican Hill Golf Club in Newport Coast. The event raised over $140,000 for the Foundation in 2008. Thirty-six foursomes participate and each is joined by an Angels' Alum. Participants enjoy a round of golf, dinner reception and silent auction with Angel greats such as Dave Winfield, Chuck Finley, Bobby Grich and many others.

Angels Wives

The Angels Wives Group takes an active role in the community throughout the season by contributing their time and effort toward charitable events, organizations and the Angels Baseball Foundation. Each year, the group builds baskets personalized to the players and coaches for an online auction benefiting the Foundation. Each basket contains game-used and autographed memorabilia, as well as Angels' tickets and merchandise. The 2008 online auctions raised over $30,000 for the Angels Baseball Foundation.

In 2008, the Wives Group joined OC Animal Care to host their first Angels for Animals event at the ballpark. Jody Kendrick, wife of Angels second-baseman Howie Kendrick, spearheaded the event to raise awareness for animal adoption and the importance of spaying and neutering pets. The group sold "mystery bags" containing baseballs autographed by Angels coaches and players and raffle tickets to win team signed bats and other autographed Angels items. Fans also had the opportunity to visit the OC Animal Care booth in front of the stadium and meet many of the animals available for adoption at the Center. Nearly $20,000 was raised at the event for OC Animal Care and other local animal shelters.

Angels Baseball Foundation Children's Holiday Party

Each year the Angels Baseball Foundation aims to make the season brighter for underprivileged kids by hosting a Children's Holiday Party for organizations in the Southern California area. Angels representatives welcome the children, pass out Angels hats and special holiday t-shirts. Players, coaches and broadcasters attend each year to kick off the event and provide the children with an afternoon of fun. The children eat dinner, make holiday crafts and have a special visit from Santa. As the children leave the party, they each receive a toy from Santa and warm holiday wishes from the Angels.

Personalized Bricks

Imagine walking up to one of the most beautiful, state-of-the-art ballparks in the country with family, friends, or co-workers. Now imagine looking down and seeing your name or message on a brick paved into the giant diamond at the Home Plate entrance. Fans can purchase a brick, inscribe their name or a message on it and become a permanent fixture of Angel Stadium of Anaheim. All proceeds from the bricks go directly to the Angels Baseball Foundation.

Message Boards

The Angels post birthday, anniversary and welcome messages during games on the Angel Vision Board. With a $25 donation per message, fans have the opportunity to share their messages with all those in attendance. All donations go to the Angels Baseball Foundation.

Stadium Tours

The "behind-the-scenes" tour of Angel Stadium of Anaheim is both an enjoyable and educational experience. Attendees are invited to view areas that are normally restricted to the public. The complete tour includes a visit to the Press Box, Clubhouse, Bullpen, Dugout, and Angel Stadium's Suites. Tours of the stadium are available year round and all donations support the Angels Baseball Foundation.

Angels Donations

The Angels are happy to help numerous charitable organizations in Southern California that are dedicated to making a difference in our community. To help support these organizations, the Angels regularly donate various autographed and game-used items and game tickets to be used for fundraising auctions and raffles. To request a donation for an upcoming event or to donate to the Foundation, please send a letter of request to the Angels' Community Relations department at:

■ Limited to 92 games in third season with Angels due to two DL stints for a strained left hamstring (missed 65 games on DL).. Initially suffered injury April 13th at Seattle in 7th inning while rounding second base...Placed on 15-day DL April 19 (retro to April 14) and activated May 30...Left game in 4th inning August 27 with re-aggravated strain in left hamstring (returned to action Sept. 22)...Batted .366 (30/82) with RISP to lead Angels...Committed three errors first 15 games at second base – had just one error in his last 77 games at position...Batted .531 in April (17/32) and had 18 hits in his first 36 at-bats, most by an Angel to start a season since Garret Anderson was 18-for-36 to open the 2003 campaign...Logged four hits Aug. 8th vs. NYY (3rd time in 2008)...Four of his six career 4-hit games have come vs. NYY...Tied club record with three doubles July 23rd vs. Cleveland...Totaled career-best 26 doubles and 11 stolen bases...Collected first career multiple home run game July 10 at Texas...Made second Opening Day Roster, both as starting second baseman.

POST-SEASON EXPERIENCE:

■ In 2008, started all four games of Division Series vs. Boston at second base...Struggled in series, batting .118 (2/17) with seven strikeouts...Had two sacrifice bunts...In 2007, made post-season debut in Division Series vs. Boston...Started all three games of series at second base and hit .200 (2/10) with one RBI and two stolen bases.

MAJOR LEAGUE SUMMARY:

■ Enjoyed solid sophomore season with Angels in 2007 despite two trips to disabled list with finger injuries...Hit .322 (109/338) with 55 runs scored, 24 doubles, two triples, five home runs and 39 RBI in 88 games...His 109 hits in 88 games projects to 201 for a full season...Missed a total of 67 games on DL...On DL July 14 (retro to July 9) – August 20 with a fracture in his left index finger and missed 35 games...Also missed 32 games during his first DL stint (April 18-May 22) with a middle finger fracture on his left hand...One of club's top performers down stretch as he hit .340 (34/100) in Sept. and .357 (51/143) after All-Star break...Batted .331 (50/151) on the road to lead Angels...Posted season-high three RBI, Aug. 31 vs. Texas, including walk-off single in 10th inning...Had season-high 12-game hit streak June 17-29...Scored winning run in 11th inning Aug. 20 vs. NYY after doubling with one out in the inning...Also doubled and scored what proved to be game-winning run in 13th inning in Angels' July 7 victory at New York...Made first Opening Day roster.

■ In 2006, split season between triple-A Salt Lake and Angels...Recalled by Angels April 24 and made ML debut as starting second baseman, April 26 vs. Detroit...Collected first ML hit with single, May 1 vs. Oakland (off Barry Zito) and first career RBI, May 4 at Detroit...Optioned to Salt Lake May 14 – went 3-for-26 (.115) with one RBI in 10 games in first stint with Angels...Recalled July 14 for second stint with Angels and remained with team for rest of season...Had immediate impact after his second recall, batting .500 (20/40) for month of July...Posted 16-game hit streak (July 16-Aug. 6), longest streak by rookie in AL during season...Reached base safely in nine straight plate appearances vs. NYY Aug. 25-27 (6 H, 3 BB)...Collected first career HR, July 26 at Tampa Bay (solo off Shawn Camp)...Ended season on nine-game hit streak going 13-for-34 (.382)...Made starts at first base (42), second base (25) and third base (1)...Posted a .994 fielding pct. at first base (2 E) without having previously played the position as a professional...Among AL rookies, ranked fourth in average (.285), sixth in hits (76) and fifth in slugging pct. (.416)...At Salt Lake, named Rookie of Year for Pacific Coast League and to Baseball America's Minor League All-Star team...Also selected to MLB Futures Game (Team USA) during All-Star break...With Bees, batted .369 (107/290) with 13 HR and 62 RBI in 69 games...Was batting over .400 with Bees as late as June 12 (.401)... Named Angels' Organizational Player of the Month for June (.387, 9 HR, 27 RBI).

MINOR LEAGUE SUMMARY:

- In 2005, solidified spot as one of top prospects in minors, hitting .367 (172/469) for second straight campaign in split season with single-A Rancho Cucamonga and double-A Arkansas (also hit .367 in Cedar Rapids in 2004 and .368 in 2003 with Provo)...367 clip ranked second in all of minor leagues to Rick Short's .383 mark with New Orleans...Totaled 104 runs, 43 doubles, eight triples, 19 home runs and 89 RBI and was named Angels' Minor League Co-Player of the Year with Brandon Wood...With Rancho Cucamonga, hit .384 (107/279) with 12 HRs and 47 RBI in 63 games...Totaled three or more hits 12 times, including three 4-hit efforts and one 5-hit performance...Batted over .400 in April (.404, 40/99) and July (.426, 26/61)...Honors with Rancho Cucamonga included: Organization Player of Month (April), California League Post-Season All-Star Team, California League All-Star Game Selection and Baseball America's High Class-A All-Star team...With Arkansas, hit .342 (65/190) with seven home runs and 42 RBI in 46 games...Named Texas League Player of Month for August after hitting .377 for the month...Posted 20-game hit streak, July 30-Aug. 20...Tabbed as #1 prospect in Texas League by Baseball America...Played for Scottsdale in Arizona Fall League and led league with 46 hits and 27 runs and ranked tied for third with .380 average...Selected as one of 24 players to represent the United States at the 2005 Olympic Qualifying Tournament in Phoenix, AZ (Nov. 15-19)...Led all players in tournament with 7 RBI and 3 SBs...U.S. finished 5-0 and played in the 2006 Americas Continental Olympic Qualifying Tournament in Havana, Cuba in August.
- In 2004, finished season with a franchise-record .367 average at Cedar Rapids and was awarded the Midwest League's batting title (although 41 plate appearances shy of the minimum necessary to qualify, it was determined he would still have the league's highest average if 41 at-bats were added to his totals, per Baseball Rule 10.23)...In 75 contests, registered 36 multi-hit games...Midwest League Player of Week, May 3-9, and named to Midwest League Post-Season All-Star Team and as Midwest League All-Star Game Selection.
- In 2003, spent season with rookie level Provo and finished third in the league with a .368 average and .434 on-base percentage and was second in runs scored (65) and fourth in hits (86)...Started season in 4-for-40 slump before responding by hitting .428 (77/180) over next two months (July-August)...Numerous accolades included: Pioneer League Post-Season Honorable Mention, Topps Pioneer League Player of the Month for August, Organization Player of the Month for August and Pioneer League Player of the Week, Aug. 25-31.
- In 2002, made professional debut with the Angels' Arizona Summer League team and led squad with .318 batting average, which ranked ninth-best in the league.

PERSONAL/MISC:

- Howard (Howie) Joseph Kendrick III.
- Takes part in numerous Angels community endeavors.
- Rated as Angels #2 prospect by Baseball America for 2006...Tabbed as #1 prospect in Texas League by Baseball America in 2005.
- Attended West Nassau HS (Callahan, FL) and St. John's River Comm. College (Palatka, FL)...Named Conference Player of the Year at SJRCC.
- Originally signed by Angels' scout Tom Kotchman.

CEDAR RAPIDS FRANCHISE HONORED

The Cedar Rapids Kernels, an Angels' single-A affiliate since 1993 (the longest current affiliation in the Midwest League), received the national John H. Johnson President's Trophy following the 2008 season. The President's Trophy, which is considered Minor League Baseball's top award, is presented annually to honor the most complete baseball franchise (criteria is determined based on franchise stability; contributions to league stability; contributions to baseball in the community; and promotion of the baseball industry).

Cedar Rapids has had professional baseball since 1890 and the Kernels have been in the Midwest League since 1962. Kernels General Manager Jack Roeder accepted the award on behalf of the Kernels from Minor League President Pat O'Connor at the 2008 Baseball Winter Meetings in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Kernels were nominated for the national award after being selected as the winner of the Midwest League John H. Johnson award for the second consecutive year.

The Angels' farm system concluded a highly-successful 2008 season with a 423-342 (.553) record overall (third-best among all MLB teams) and a 15-13 mark in the playoffs. Six of the Angels' seven affiliates qualified for post-season play (with Rancho Cucamonga, which did not make the postseason, extending its regular season with a one-game playoff to determine the wild card entrant). Arkansas captured the Texas League Championship while Orem and Tempe lost in the championships. Cedar Rapids and the Dominican Angels reached the semifinal rounds while Salt Lake lost in the first round.

SALT LAKE BEES (84-60, 1-3 playoffs): In his first season at Salt Lake, manager Bobby Mitchell led the Bees to an 84-60 record and first place finish in the Pacific Coast League's North Division before losing in the first round of the playoffs to Sacramento (1-3). The Bees got off to the best start of any team in minor league history, going 15-0 and 21-1 with a franchise-record 15-game win streak. Salt Lake ranked sixth in the league with a .285 batting average. INF Freddy Sandoval, who led the PCL with 176 hits and 45 doubles, also led the Bees with a .335 average (6th in league), 92 runs scored (5th), 88 RBI, 525 at-bats and 131 games played. INF Brandon Wood ranked fifth in the league with 31 home runs and a .595 slugging percentage. OF Chris Walker hit a team-best six triples and OF Brad Coon led the Bees with 17 stolen bases. INF Matt Brown hit .320 to finish 10th in the league. Salt Lake's pitching corps ranked eighth in the PCL with a 4.79 ERA. RHP Shane Loux (12-6, 3.98 ERA), who was named the PCL Pitcher of the Year, finished with the league's fourth-best ERA and second-highest win total. RHP Giancarlo Alvarado (7-5, 4.27 ERA) ranked 10th in ERA and third in strikeouts (131). RHP Jason Bulger recorded a team-high 16 saves (tied for third in league). RHP Nick Green finished fifth in the league with a team-best 159 innings. Loux, Brown, Wood and Bulger were named to the PCL Post-Season All-Star Team and Bulger was named the Triple-A Reliever of the Year by Minor League Baseball.com.

ARKANSAS TRAVELERS (62-78, 6-2 playoffs): The Arkansas Travelers, managed by Bobby Magallanes, captured the Texas League Championship, going 6-2 in the playoffs. Arkansas swept the North Division series (3-0) over NW Arkansas before winning three of five games from Frisco in the title series. The Travelers finished the regular season with a 62-78 overall record (36-34 for 1st place tie in first half and 26-44 for 4th place in second half). On the mound, Arkansas ranked sixth in the league in pitching with a 4.50 ERA. Three pitchers—RHP Dan Denham (9-10, 4.44 ERA), RHP Bobby Mosebach (9-12, 4.62 ERA) and RHP Anthony Ortega (9-7, 3.73)—tied for the club lead Arkansas in wins with Ortega ranking fifth in the league in ERA and Denham finishing ninth. Mosebach tied for the league lead with two complete games and led the lead with 177.1 innings pitched (his 12 losses were third-most). RHP Kevin Jepsen and RHP Rafael Rodriguez each had a team-best 11 saves. Arkansas finished eighth in the Texas League in hitting (.259). OF Brian Stavisky hit a team-best .312. INF Corey Smith, who tied for the league lead with 26 home runs, also led the Travelers in games (128), at-bats (495), runs (58), hits (134), doubles (31) and RBI (80). INF Nate Sutton had a team-high six triples. C Ben Johnson was named to the Texas League Post-Season All-Star Team.

HOWIE GERSHBERG MINOR LEAGUE PITCHER OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Angels' Minor League Pitcher of the Year award has been re-named the "Howie Gershberg Minor League Pitcher of the Year" award after the Angels' late minor league pitching instructor. Gershberg joined the Angels' farm system in 1985 and during his tenure, served as a minor league pitching coach and coordinator. He served the organization faithfully for 19 seasons before succumbing to cancer on November 19, 2003. Gershberg's playing career included stints with the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants in the 1950's. He had a passion for the game and dedicated his life to working with and developing quality pitchers including: John Franco, Chuck Finley, Troy Percival, Scot Shields, John Lackey and Francisco Rodriguez.

Mike Scioscia

HALO NEW YORK: Three Angels were selected to represent Angels and American League at 79th All-Star Game held at Yankee Stadium on July 15... RHP Francisco Rodriguez made his third AL team (2004 & 2007), while RHP Ervin Santana and LHP Joe Saunders each made their first All-Star club... Saunders became the Angels first left-handed pitcher to make the squad since Chuck Finley in 1996...Marked first time Angels had three pitchers selected to an All-Star team and second time two starting pitchers have come from the Angels (1973 – Nolan Ryan & Bill Singer)...In the game won by the AL 4-3 in 15 innings, Rodriguez appeared in the ninth inning (.1 IP, 1 BB), Santana pitched the fifth frame (1 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 HR, 2 SO – HR by Matt Holliday) and Saunders pitched the third inning (1 H).

IT'S A STRANGE GAME: Angels became the second team since 1900 to allow 20 hits in a game (July 10 at Rangers) and win (11-10 in 11 inn.) and hold an opponent hitless (June 28 at Dodgers) and lose (0-1) in the same season (1992 Red Sox).

CLUB HISTORY

2009 ANGELS INFORMATION GUIDE

In the winter of 1960, Gene Autry attended the American League expansion meeting in St. Louis seeking radio rights for his Golden West Broadcasting firm. On Dec. 6, 1960 he returned as Owner and Chairman of the Board of the expansion Los Angeles Angels.
Following is a chronological look at the beginning of the Los Angeles Angels:

1960

Dec. 6 — At St. Louis, MO, the expansion Los Angeles Angels is awarded to Gene Autry, Robert O. Reynolds, Paul A. O'Bryan and associates.
Dec. 8 — Fred Haney is named General Manager.
Dec. 12 — Bill Rigney is named Field Manager.
Dec. 14 — Haney and Rigney select 28 players from the American League player pool at a meeting in Boston...Total cost: $2,150,000 including two minor league draft picks...First player drafted is pitcher Eli Grba.
Dec. 16 — Palm Springs, CA announced as spring training site.

1961

Jan. 14 — Leonard K. Firestone becomes part owner and Vice President of the Angels.
Jan. 24 — Angels announce signing of first two players - outfielders Bob Cerv and Albie Pearson.
Feb. 6 — Angels hold first public tryout camp at Sawtelle Hospital...Over 300 prospects attend tryout...Six players are signed.
Feb. 24 — Angels open spring training camp in Palm Springs.
Mar. 11 — Angels defeat Chicago Cubs in first exhibition game, 8-3, before an overflow crowd at the Polo Grounds in Palm Springs...Club also wins second game on March 12, 12-5.
Apr. 11 — Behind the strong pitching of Eli Grba and power of Ted Kluszewski, the Angels rolled to a 7-2 victory in their first American League regular season game. Grba went the distance, allowing one earned run on six hits. Kluszewski hit a pair of home runs and collected five RBI. The Angels scored all seven runs in the first two frames, three in the first inning on back-to-back home runs by Kluszewski and Bob Cerv.

The Angels finished the 1961 season with a 70-91 record. The club's .435 winning percentage established and still stands as the best of any expansion team in major league history.
The Angels played at Wrigley Field in Los Angeles in 1961, then moved to Chavez Ravine (now Dodger Stadium) in 1962 and remained their through the 1965 season. In 1966, the franchise moved south to Anaheim and played 32 seasons at Anaheim Stadium. The club opened the 1997 season as the Anaheim Angels and began play at Edison Field in 1998.
Prior to the 2004 season the stadium name was changed to Angel Stadium of Anaheim. On Jan. 3, 2005 the official name of the franchise was changed to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

ANGELS ORIGINAL PLAYER DRAFT

The Angels drafted a total of 28 players from the existing American League clubs on December 14, 1960. Owners of the new Los Angeles and Washington clubs as well as their recently appointed front offices and field bosses — General Manager Fred Haney and Manager Bill Rigney of the Angels and General Manager Ed Doherty and Manager Mickey Vernon of the Senators — attended the session held in the league offices.
A price of $75,000 was set on the players to be picked and both of the new clubs were required to select 28. The players were picked by categories, starting with pitchers, then catchers, infielders and outfielders. A toss of the coin determined which club had first choice in each group, and then they alternated. Haney won the toss for three positions — all but for outfielders.
Besides the 28 regular selections by both clubs, Los Angeles bought two players from the special minor league pool at $25,000 apiece and Washington grabbed three. Thus, the Angels paid $2,150,000 for their 30 players and the Senators shelled out $2,175,000 for their 31 players in the unprecedented distribution.
Following is the order in which the Angels players were selected:
NOTE: Following the selections, Wilson notified the Angels and Cleveland that he intended to retire from the game. As a result, his selection was canceled several weeks later and the Indians sent pitcher Ted Bowsfield to the Angels as a replacement.

ANGEL STADIUM

The club renamed its ballpark Angel Stadium prior to the 2004 season, following a decision by Edison International to exercise its option to exit its 1998 naming rights agreement.

Renovations to Anaheim Stadium began Oct. 1, 1996, reverting the 30-year old structure back to a baseball-only facility and renamed Edison International Field. The total cost for the stadium renovation was estimated at $100 million and the project was completed in time for the Angels Opening Day, April 1, 1998.

Anaheim Stadium had been the home of the Angels since their move from Los Angeles following the 1965 season. The stadium opened April 9, 1966, as the California Angels hosted the San Francisco Giants in an exhibition game. The franchise's first American League game was April 19, 1966 vs. the Chicago White Sox. The Los Angeles Angels played at Wrigley Field in 1961 and Chavez Ravine from 1962-65.

The original Anaheim Stadium seated 43,204 (later 43,250). The stadium underwent construction in 1979-80 for additional seating to accommodate the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL. Upon completion in 1981, the stadium seated 65,158 (later 64,593) for baseball. The Rams left Anaheim for St. Louis, MO in 1995. Angel Stadium of Anaheim has a seating capacity of 45,257 for Angels regular season games.

ANGELS' SUPER SYSTEM BY DAKTRONICS, INC.

Prior to the 2004 season, Angel Stadium received a new $6.5 million integrated video, scoring and advertising display system throughout the ballpark. The system, by Daktronics, Inc., provides entertaining video images on two large outfield displays with additional stats and information presented on six other full-color light emitting diode (LED) displays. The new displays are: Main Scoreboard – Right Field...The right field scoreboard is upgraded with three new electronic displays and new rotating and static advertising panels. The large ProStar® display in the center measures approximately 42 feet high by 67 feet wide (528 pixels by 880 pixels). Two auxiliary LED displays are located on each side of the large video display and measure approximately 12 feet high by 50 feet wide (144 pixels by 656 pixels)... Auxiliary Video Display – Left Field...A new structure in left field includes a second large ProStar® video display. Dubbed "Angel Vision", the display has rotating and static advertising panels with a large illuminated Angels logo...Outfield Wall Display – Right Field...A large full-color LED display incorporated into the right field fence used for presenting out- of-town game scores, stats and other information... Fascia Displays – First Base Line, Third Base Line and Home Plate...Three fascia-mounted ProAd® displays provide additional information for fans, including statistical information, exciting and colorful graphics and animation and advertising messages.

Other unique features of Angel Stadium include terraced bullpens in the outfield, widened concourses, new restroom and concession areas, a spacious and modernized press box and broadcast booths, family-oriented seating sections, state-of-the-art club-level and dugout-level suites, the Pepsi Perfect Game Pavilion (a youth-oriented interactive game area) and landscaped courtyards (with statues in rememberance of Gene Autry and Michelle Carew).

In addition, Angel Stadium includes three full-service restaurants: The Knothole Club (a sports bar located at the club level down the right field line); The Diamond Club (an upscale restaurant with outdoor seating on the field level behind home plate); and the Home Plate Club (an indoor restaurant on the club level overlooking the main entrance to the ballpark).

The following organizations were involved in implementing the transition of Anaheim Stadium into Angel Stadium: Walt Disney Imagineering, which served as the manager of the design and construction; HOK Sports Facilities Group and Robert A.M. Stern Architects, which were responsible for the architectural planning, design and renovation; and Turner Construction, which directed and provided construction services.

Anaheim Stadium was home to the Angels for 32 years, beginning with an April 9, 1966, exhibition contest vs. the San Francisco Giants and concluding with the final game of the 1997 season, a 4-0 loss to the Texas Rangers, Sept. 28.

After an Aug. 31, 1964 groundbreaking ceremony, Anaheim Stadium was completed in 1966 at a cost of $24 million. The facility's centerpiece was a giant A-frame scoreboard standing 230 feet high and was the source of the stadium's nickname, "The Big A."

With a seating capacity of 43,250, Anaheim Stadium was built with "Convenience, Comfort and Courtesy" in mind. Narrow foul territory areas and quickly-rising decks gave fans an up-close view of the action. Gradually-inclined ramps, escalators, wide aisles and helpful ushers as well as three surrounding freeways, 26 entrance lanes and 28 exit lanes added to the Big A's accessibility.

Anaheim Stadium underwent construction to enclose the stadium in 1979 for additional seating to accommodate the football Rams. Seating capacity was increased to 64,593 for baseball and more than 70,000 for football. A total of 108 executive style boxes were added to surround the rear of the Club Level. In addition to the Stadium Club, there were two other private dining areas designed for groups — the Stadium Pavilion and the Football Press Box.

At that time, the Big A board was preserved and moved to the edge of the parking lot adjacent to the Orange Freeway behind the right field area.

When the Rams left for St. Louis, Anaheim Stadium's primary tenant remained the Angels, who originally signed a 35-year contract (through 2001). Renovations began Oct. 1, 1996, to revert the 30-year old structure back to a baseball only facility. Total cost for the renovation was estimated at $100 million.

April 10, 1964 — Anaheim City Council accepts letter of intent in special joint session of Council of Orange County Board of Supervisors, but Supervisors decline to join Anaheim in financing and constructing stadium. City Council unanimously votes to "Go it Alone." Contractor Del Webb pledges to complete stadium before April, 1966 and proceeds with plans, at his own risk, pending final decision of Council. Council authorizes City Manager and City Attorney to draw up lease agreement with Angels and contract for construction of stadium.

Aug. 8, 1964 — Anaheim and Angels sign 35-year lease for stadium.

Aug. 25, 1964 — Purchase of 150 acres completed. By resolution, City Council officially names stadium "Anaheim Stadium."

Aug. 26, 1964 — Anaheim and Del Webb Construction sign contract for construction of stadium to seat about 50,000 at maximum cost of $16 million.

Aug. 31, 1964 — Groundbreaking for construction of stadium. Angels owner Gene Autry, Del Webb and Anaheim Mayor Odra Chandler shoveled soil in a clearing surrounded by orange groves and corn fields.

Aug. 26, 1965 — Structural steel construction of stadium completed.

Sept. 2, 1965 — Decision made to open with 43,204 seating capacity.

Oct. 1, 1965 — Stadium grass planted.

Oct. 15, 1965 — Last concrete poured.

Nov. 15, 1965 — Installation of seats begins.

Nov. 23, 1965 — Compaction and grading of parking lot begins.

Dec. 8, 1965 — Model of scoreboard is unveiled; Standard Oil Company to finance $1 million, 230-foot, A-frame scoreboard structure in left field.

Dec. 29, 1965 — Placement of light towers; work on scoreboard begins.

April 9, 1966 — Anaheim Stadium opens in Angels' exhibition vs. San Francisco Giants.

In 2008, the Angels finished with a home attendance of 3,336,744, the second highest mark in the AL and fifth highest in the major leagues...The Angels road attendance was 2,399,332, fifth lowest in the circuit...Home attendance marked the sixth consecutive season over three million fans, 11th straight season above the two million mark, 25th time in club history, while road attendance figures marked the 16th time over two million fans...The club set home attendance game highs against three opponents and record for largest four-game series on the road (at New York)...Angels season-high attendance at home was 44,260, July 18 vs. Boston...The club enjoyed 29 sellouts at Angel Stadium in 2008 and own 250 in the history of the renovated ballpark.

The Angels established their single-game home attendance figure when 64,406 witnessed Game 1 of the 1982 ALCS against Milwaukee, Oct. 5 at Anaheim Stadium. During the ensuing 1983 campaign, the top two regular season crowds in club history were set when 63,132 watched the Angels host Kansas City, July 4, and 63,073 viewed the April 23 game against Baltimore.

1979 CALIFORNIA ANGELS

Following its entry into the American League as an expansion club in 1961, the first post-season berth for the Angels franchise would not occur until 1979. The Angels featured an offense that led the American League in runs scored with 866 and registered a .282 team average, both marks establishing club records.

The magical season, considered by Owner Gene Autry as one of his proudest memories, was led by the MVP season of Don Baylor who recorded a .296 average with 36 home runs, and a league-leading 162 games played, 120 runs scored and 139 RBI. His 28 RBI in April set a league record, while his 34 RBI in July established a club record. Baylor's accomplishments led to his selection as A.L. "Player of the Month" twice in '79.

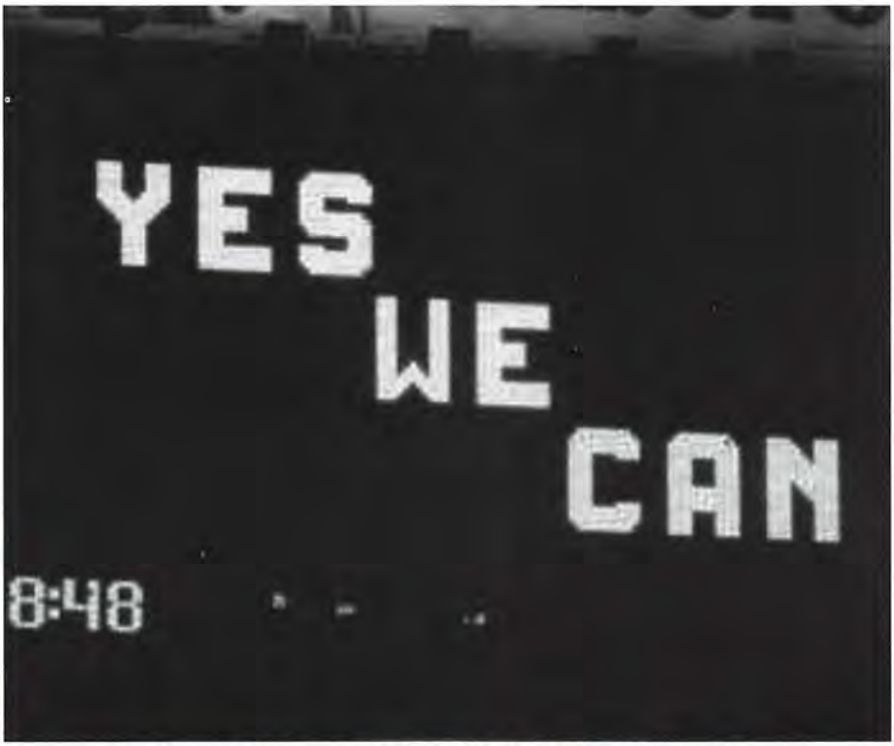
Baylor, Dan Ford (101) and Bobby Grich (101) paced the club in RBI, while Baylor, Ford (100) and Carney Lansford (114) led the club in runs scored. The season would mark the first in an Angels' uniform for future Hall of Famer Rod Carew and the last for another headed to the Hall in Nolan Ryan.

The season featured countless memorable moments, both from an individual and team perspective. During an impressive three-game series prior to the All-Star break, the Angels swept the defending World Champion New York Yankees. Ryan would be denied his fifth no-hitter with the Angels in the ninth inning of a 6-1 win, July 13. Three home runs and a five-run eighth against Cleveland, Aug. 31 aided a 9-8 win that would put the club into first to stay. Frank Tanana was on the mound Sept. 25, collecting a 4-1 division-clinching victory against Kansas City, solidifying the Angels' first trip to the American League Championship Series.

Despite leading in each of the first three games of the ALCS against Baltimore, the Angels were defeated by the Orioles, three games to one. Their performance against a club that finished regular season play with a 102-57 record was more than most expected.

In Game One at Baltimore, pinch-hitter John Lowenstein's three-run homer in the bottom of the 10th was the decisive blow in a 6-3 Baltimore win. California battled back from a 9-1 deficit in Game Two, scoring six runs in the final three innings during a 9-8 loss in Memorial Stadium.

Larry Harlow's dramatic run-scoring double in the bottom of the ninth in Anaheim in Game Three accounted for the only California win as the Orioles, behind Scott McGregor's six-hitter, won Game Four, 8-0.



A slogan often seen and heard during the 1979 campaign.

1982 CALIFORNIA ANGELS

Considered by many as the best team in club history, the 1982 Angels were a solid group of established veterans and stars. In fact, the club boasted four former American League Most Valuable Players in the lineup (Don Baylor, Rod Carew, Reggie Jackson and Fred Lynn).

The '82 version of the Angels featured a punishing offense that saw nine players register at least 100 hits. Victory was especially satisfying for manager Gene Mauch, who last tasted success with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1964. Despite winning 93 games, the race for post-season play with Kansas City came down to the second to final game of the season when the Angels defeated Texas at home, 6-4.

It was the 1982 Angels, led by Baylor, who asked to have uniform No. 26 retired in order to honor Owner Gene Autry as the 26th player on the club. The gesture came on the final day of the season.

Each of California's nine starting position players registered at least 138 games played while five of them played 150-or-more games (Brian Downing -158, Baylor - 157, Doug DeCinces & Reggie Jackson - 153 and Tim Foli - 150).

Bobby Grich

Outfielder Reggie Jackson, who ended his five tumultuous years with the Yankees by signing a four-year contract with the Angels, tied for the American League lead in home runs and set an Angels' record with 39. His 101 RBI also led the club.

Mauch's Angels used power and also created the phrase "little ball" as his offense led the A.L. with 114 sacrifice bunts. While Foli (26) and Boone (23) combined for 49 sacrifices, 13 other Angels totaled at least one sacrifice, including Carew and Juan Beniquez, each with 16.

Two crowds of over 64,000 per game watched the Angels jump out to a 2-0 series lead against the Milwaukee Brewers. Baylor's five RBI in Game One led to an 8-3 triumph as left-hander Tommy John tossed a complete-game seven-hitter.

The following night, right-hander Bruce Kison limited Milwaukee to five hits during a 4-2 win in a game played in two hours and six minutes. The Angels had a commanding 2-0 series lead heading to Milwaukee.

With the series seemingly under control, the LCS shifted to County Stadium where the Brewers won Game Three, 5-3, behind a solid outing from Don Sutton. A pair of three-run innings and three California errors resulted in a 9-5 setback in Game Four, setting the stage for a dramatic and decisive Game Five. Cecil Cooper's two-run single in the seventh off Luis Sanchez was the difference in a 4-3 Brewers' series clinching win.

Despite not moving on to the World Series, outfielder Fred Lynn was honored as the series Most Valuable Player with his .611 average (11/18).

1986 CALIFORNIA ANGELS

The 1986 campaign was an exciting season featuring some of the most memorable performances in club history. A dramatic American League Championship Series also resulted in one of the most memorable post-seasons in baseball history.

Bolstered by several veterans such as Bob Boone, Rick Burleson, Doug DeCinces, Brian Downing, Bobby Grich and Reggie Jackson, '86 saw the emergence of a young first baseman named Wally Joyner who captivated the baseball world with his solid first-half performance after replacing the legendary Rod Carew.

An eventual runner-up in Rookie of the Year voting behind Jose Canseco, Joyner recorded a .290 average with 22 home runs and 100 RBI. His clutch hitting and spectacular defense made him a favorite among Angels' fans immediately. Fans around the country eventually showed much of the same fondness.

After finishing in second place, one game back, in 1985, the Angels vowed in spring training to make up that one game in '86. Combined with a solid offense, California's starting rotation of Kirk McCaskill (17-10), Mike Witt (18-10), Don Sutton (15-11) and John Candelaria (10-2 in 16 starts) enabled the ballclub to finish with a 92-70 record.

Defense also contributed as the Angels sported two Gold Glove winners in Bob Boone and Gary Pettis, while Dick Schofield played an equally solid shortstop.

On April 26, a game between California and Minnesota was delayed for nine minutes in the Metrodome when strong winds tore a hole in the Metrodome roof, causing suspended lights and speakers to sag toward the field. When the game resumed in the top of the ninth, California struck for a trio of two-run homers and a 7-6 win. On May 14, Jackson homered off Boston's Roger Clemens to move past Mickey Mantle on the all-time list with 537. Wally Joyner broke up Walt Terrell's bid for a no-hitter with two out in the ninth during a 3-0 loss. For the second time in his career, Jackson hit three home runs in a game, Sept. 18 vs. Kansas City. At the age of 40 years and four months, he joined Stan Musial and Babe Ruth as the only 40-plus players to accomplish the feat.

The excitement of the regular season spilled into the ALCS as the Angels jumped out to a 3-1 series lead over Boston. An incredible come-from-behind win in Game 4 by California after trailing 3-0 in the bottom of the ninth enabled the Angels to find themselves one game away from the World Series.

With the Angels leading 5-2 in the ninth inning of Game 5, the Red Sox staged one of the most improbable comebacks in post-season history, winning 7-6 in 11 innings. After Don Baylor's ninth-inning home run pulled Boston to 5-4, Dave Henderson slammed a two-run homer off reliever Donnie Moore for a 6-5 lead. The Angels were within one strike of victory.

Despite having the score tied in the bottom of the ninth, the Red Sox were able to squeeze out of a bases-loaded, one-out situation and send the game into extra-innings. The Angels were unable to regain their magic in Games 6 & 7 in Boston as the Red Sox advanced to the World Series where they would later experience some of the same heartbreak that befell the Angels.

ANGELS IN THE POST-SEASON (2002)

2002 SEASON:

The Angels finished the 2002 campaign with a 99-63 record, claiming the AL Wild Card, finishing four games behind Oakland in the AL West...99 wins marked the most victories in a season in club history (surpassing 93 in 1982)...On April 23, Angels sat at 6-14 (worst start in club history after 20 games), 10.5 games behind Seattle...After that, Angels were 44 games above .500 (93-49) over their last 142 games...Angels tallied 43 comeback wins, 12 when trailing after six innings...Club posted three win streaks of eight-or-more games marking first time in club history...Halos finished first in the American League with a club record .282 batting average (also 1979)...Angels finished with a 3.69 ERA, ranking second in the AL (Oakland, 3.68) and ranked first in the AL in saves with a club record 54...Troy Percival led the way with 40 saves...Relievers posted a 27-16 mark and 2.98 ERA, the best ERA in the AL and second in the majors (Atlanta)...Jarrod Washburn set a club record for road wins (13) and the longest win streak in a season (12, April 19-July 21)...Garret Anderson finished with a .306 average (194/638), 93 runs scored, 56 doubles, three triples, 29 home runs, 123 RBI, 30 walks and six stolen bases in 158 games to be named as team MVP, finishing fourth in AL MVP voting.

POST-SEASON:

ALDS - In their first post-season appearance in 16 years, the Angels defeated the New York Yankees in the Division Series (three games to one) to claim the first post-season series victory in club history...Angels dropped Game 1 in New York before rolling off three consecutive wins to move to the ALCS...The Halos' offense scored 31 runs in four games and hit .376 (56-for-149), a record for a team in any post-season series...In Game 1, Troy Glaus became the first Angel to collect two home runs in a post-season game and seventh player in major league history to accomplish the feat in his first career playoff game...Francisco Rodriguez became the second pitcher in major league history to win two playoff games before the age of 21 (also Fernando Valenzuela in 1981)...Rodriguez also became the first pitcher in ML history to win two post-season games without owning a regular season victory...In Game 4, the club set a Division Series single-inning record with eight runs on a major league post-season record 10 hits (also set by Philadelphia A's in Game 4 of 1929 World Series) during the fifth frame.

Did You Know? The Angels finished with an 8-1 record at home during post-season play in 2002.

ALCS - The Angels defeated the Minnesota Twins (four games to one) to claim their first ever AL Pennant and earn a spot in the Fall Classic...The franchise, which was established in 1961, had been tied with the Senators/Rangers franchise for longest tenure by an expansion team without reaching the World Series...It marked the first time in the history of the best-of-seven format that a team won four straight games after losing the opener in a LCS...Francisco Rodriguez became the first pitcher in major league history to win his first three games in post-season play...In Game 5, the Angels scored 10 runs on 10 hits in the 7th inning establishing or tying several post-season records during the frame, including post-season marks for runs in an inning, singles in an inning and plate appearances in an inning...Adam Kennedy was named Most Valuable Player of the ALCS, the second Angel to be named ALCS MVP (also Fred Lynn in 1982 ALCS, the only MVP in ALCS history from the losing team)...Kennedy became the third player in history to hit three home runs in an LCS contest in Game 5, the sixth time in post-season history that a player homered three times in a contest...The Angels' bullpen combined to allow four runs 14.1 innings in the series, fanning 18 batters...Minnesota's bullpen gave up 10 runs in Game 5 and allowed 16 runs in the last seven innings of work...Angels' pitchers did not allow a HR in the series.

World Series – The All-California Series matched the Angels with the San Francisco Giants in the 99th edition of the Fall Classic...42 years of waiting for a World Series crown came to a close for Angels fans in Game 7 when Darin Erstad caught Kenny Lofton's fly ball with two on and two out in the top of the ninth inning to preserve the Angels 4-1 series clinching victory in front of 44,598 raucous fans...Game 7 win was keyed by Garret Anderson's three-run double in the third inning...John Lackey received the win in the final game, becoming just the second rookie pitcher since to win Game 7 of the World Series (also accomplished by Babe Adams with Pittsburgh in 1909)...At 20 years, 286 days, Francisco Rodriguez became the youngest pitcher ever to win a World Series contest in Game 2...The win was his fifth of the post-season, tying Randy Johnson (2001) for the most ever in a single post-season...In Game 6, the Angels' 6-5 comeback win was the biggest ever by a team facing Series elimination...It marked the second time in the '02 post-season the club overcame a five-run deficit to win (also trailed 6-1 in Game 3 of ALDS to NYY and won 9-6), the first team ever to rally from two five-run deficits in a single post-season...With his three-run HR in the seventh inning of Game 6, Scott Spiezio tied Cleveland's Sandy Alomar Jr. (1997) for the most RBI (19) in a single post-season... Angels' manager Mike Scioscia became the 28th individual to play for and manage a World Series Championship team...The Angels became the first team since the 1912 Boston Red Sox to win the World Series with no players on the roster with previous World Series experience... Angels third baseman Troy Glaus was named MVP of the 2002 Fall Classic after hitting .385 (10/26) with seven runs, three doubles, three home runs and eight RBI in seven games...He was the sixth player to hit a pair of home runs in his first World Series game.

A jubilant Troy Percival and Bengie Molina commence celebration of the Angels' first world title.

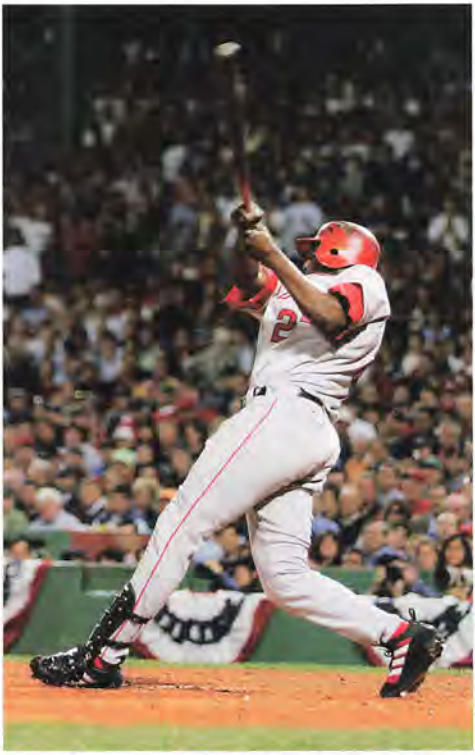
2004 SEASON:

The Angels clinched the AL West title with a 5-4 victory, Oct. 2 at Oakland, despite numerous injuries to key players throughout the season (14 players went on DL)...Marked organization's first division crown in 18 seasons (1986)...Represented club's fourth division crown (1979, 1982 & 1986) and fifth trip to post-season (2002 Wild Card entrant)...The clincher came 22 years to the day that Angels won West in 1982 (6-5 vs. Texas)... Angels' 92 wins on season marked third most (tied w/1986) in club history...Each season Angels have won 92 games-or-more they have made post-season (1982-93, 1986-92 & 2002-99)...Angels were six games back on June 21 (49-45), marking largest deficit overcome to win division title in club history...The final weekend series against Athletics marked first time since 1980 two teams entered such weekend tied for division title and playing each other to close regular season (Philadelphia at Montreal; 2-1 Phillies)...Angels finished with a home attendance club record of 3,375,677, the second highest mark in the AL and third highest in the major leagues... Club finished in a virtual tie for first place in the American League in batting average (.2824) with Boston (.2819), after posting a .268 mark in 2003...The mark tied the club record (.282) also set in 2002 and 1979... The Angels ranked first in the AL for fewest strikeouts (942) for the third straight season (838 in 2003 & 805 in 2002)...The club led the league with 143 stolen bases, marking the second time in club history (220 in 1975)... Vladimir Guerrero set or tied Angels' season records in average by a right-handed hitter (.337), runs scored (124, led league), hits by right-hander (206) and total bases (366-tied club record and led league)...He would become the second player in club history bestowed with AL MVP honors (Baylor, 1979)...The Angels finished with a 4.28 ERA, ranking fourth in AL (4.28 in 2003, 6th)...Bartolo Colon posted 18 wins, the most by a first-year Angel since Bill Singer with 20 in 1973...The bullpen finished 25-16 with a 3.47 ERA (590.1 IP - 189 ER) with 50 saves (3rd in AL) in 67 chances (75%)...The bullpen ERA led the AL for the third straight season...The Angels ranked first in the AL in strikeouts with a club record 1,164, led by Kelvim Escobar (191)...Angels ranked tied for second in league with club record .985 fielding percentage...The Angels committed 90 errors in 162 games, and tied club record for errorless games with 93...Darin Erstad earned Gold Glove honors at first base.

POST-SEASON:

2004 DIVISION SERIES

After a post-season absence in 2003, the Angels returned to the playoffs in 2004 to face the Boston Red Sox, who claimed the AL Wild Card, in the American League Division Series...2004 was the Angels' second Division Series appearance (2002 vs. New York) and second post-season matchup against Boston (lost in '86 ALCS, 4-3)... On Angels' Division Series roster, 10 of 25 players had yet to appear in post-season in their careers, including Alfredo Amezaga, Jeff DaVanon, Kelvim Escobar, Kevin Gregg, Vladimir Guerrero, Casey Kotchman, Dallas McPherson, Josh Paul, Curtis Pride and Adam Riggs...In Game 1 at Angel Stadium, the Angels fell to Boston, 9-3, after a seven-run fourth inning put the Sox up 8-0...Five of the runs in the inning were unearned, after the Angels led the Major Leagues by allowing just 36 unearned runs during the season...Troy Glaus and Darin Erstad homered off Curt Schilling to account for two of the three Angel runs...In Game 2, the Angels took a 3-1 lead against Pedro Martinez, courtesy of a two-run Vladimir Guerrero single in the fifth, into the sixth inning before the Red Sox posted seven unanswered runs over the final four frames...The torrid Red Sox offense put Boston up 6-1 after six innings in Game 3 at Fenway Park...A dramatic grand slam from Guerrero in the seventh frame tied the game at 6-6 but a 10th inning, walk-off home run off the bat of David Ortiz sealed the Angels' fate as Boston was on their way to the ALCS and eventual World Series title...The Angels were swept for the first time in post-season play... The game would mark the Angel farewells to Troy Percival, David Eckstein, Troy Glaus and Ramon Ortiz.



Guerrero's grand slam in game 3

2005 SEASON:

The Angels clinched its second straight AL West title with a 4-3 victory Sept. 27 at Oakland, marking the club's fifth Western Division crown and sixth overall trip to the post-season (2002 Wild Card entrant)...Angels finished with a 95-67 record, seven games ahead of Oakland in the AL West...The 95 wins marked second most in club history (99 in 2002) as the 7.0 division lead was the biggest game differential in a division title season...The club was in first place 171 of 183 days...Halos went 22-9 to finish regular season (14-2 over final 16 games)...44 of 95 wins were in comeback fashion, including 16 when trailing after 6 innings (most in ML)...Halos led Majors batting .296 with RISP and .279 with RISP and 2 outs...The club also led the Majors with 161 stolen bases...Garret Anderson set or extended the Angels' all-time records in hits (1,929), total bases (3,062), extra-base hits (565), doubles (403) and RBI (1,043)...Chone Figgins set the club record for base hits by a switch-hitter (186) and led the Majors with 62 stolen bases...Despite missed time with a shoulder separation, Vlad Guerrero finished 3rd in AL in average (.317), tied for 10th in home runs (32) and tied for 9th in RBI (108)...Figgins and Bartolo Colon shared team MVP honors.

The Angels finished with a 3.68 ERA, ranking third in AL, and ranked first in strikeouts with 1,126... Francisco Rodriguez led the bullpen with 45 saves (T1st in AL) in 50 chances and converted his last 18 opportunities...Scot Shields set a club record with 78 appearances...Seven Angel pitchers finished with a record above .500, led by Colon's 21-8 mark, the most wins in the AL which paved the way to his first Cy Young Award....Three Angels ranked in the top 10 in ERA in the AL, including Jarrod Washburn (4th, 3.20), Lackey (6th, 3.44) and Colon (8th, 3.48)...The Angels ranked tied for first in league with club record tying .986 fielding percentage...Orlando Cabrera tied the club mark for fielding percentage by shortstop (.988, also David Eckstein in 2004), which also tied for the ML lead in 2005...Angels finished with a home attendance club record of 3,404,686, the second highest mark in the AL and third highest in the major leagues...The record surpasses the 2004 mark of 3,375,667.

POST-SEASON:

2005 DIVISION SERIES RECAP

The first round of the Division Series matched the Angels against the New York Yankees, a team they defeated in the first round of the 2002 playoffs...The Halos' win on the last day of the regular season was crucial as it gave the club home field advantage over New York for the Division Series.

Game 1 matched Mike Mussina vs. Bartolo Colon at Angel Stadium...A first inning, bases-clearing double by Robinson Cano proved to be too much for the Angels to overcome as it lifted the Yankees to a 4-2 win and a 1-0 series lead...It marked the fifth consecutive post-season series the Angels dropped Game 1.

In Game 2, the Angels defeated the Yankees 5-3 rallying from 2-0 deficit...Bengie Molina's solo HR in the 8th inning marked his second post-season HR in as many games...His 2-out RBI single in 6th inning tied the score at 2-2 and Orlando Cabrera's two-run single in the 8th frame proved to be the game-winner.

As the series shifted to the Bronx for Game 3, a three-run home run by Garret Anderson off Randy Johnson in the first inning sparked the Halos' offense to 11 runs on 19 hits...The 19 hits established a new playoff high for the Angels...Anderson finished with four hits and five RBI and Bengie Molina homered for the third straight game.

The Halos would have to wait out a day of rain before Game 4...John Lackey, pitching on three days rest for Jarrod Washburn (scratched due to throat infection), limited the Yankees to one run on two hits in 5.2 innings of work...New York rallied from a 2-0 deficit, scoring one run in the sixth inning and two runs in the seventh frame for a 4-3 win...Both clubs totaled just four hits in the game, with Chone Figgins and Orlando Cabrera each collecting RBI doubles in the sixth inning for the Angels...The series was tied at 2-2 with Game 5 being played the next night, over 3,000 miles across the country in Anaheim.

The deciding game of the series was a rematch of Game 1 starters in Mussina and Colon...Colon would leave after just 1+ IP due to a strained right shoulder...The season came down to 22 year-old Ervin Santana, who was summoned from the bullpen...After an early 2-0 lead taken by the Yankees in the top of the second inning, the Halos put up three runs in the bottom half of the frame with Adam Kennedy's two-run triple serving as the key blow...Santana would settle in and work 5.1 innings, allowing just three runs...A solo HR by Derek Jeter in the 7th inning brought the score to 5-3 but Francisco Rodriguez closed the door with the tying runs on base in the 9th...For the second time in four seasons the Angels bounced the Yankees from the first round of the playoffs.

Santana became the sixth rookie winning pitcher in a winner-take-all postseason game and third to do it in last 20 years, along with John Lackey (2002 World Series vs. Giants) and Jaret Wright (1997 ALDS vs. Yankees).

2005 LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES RECAP

The Angels matched up with the Chicago White Sox in the ALCS with hopes of advancing to the World Series for the second time in four seasons...A well-rested Chicago team awaited the Angels, who were playing three games in three cities (New York, Anaheim & Chicago) in consecutive days – the first time it occurred in Major League post-season history...The Angels would also be without Bartolo Colon for the remainder of the post-season.

In Game 1, Paul Byrd gave the club 6+ innings, allowing just two earned runs in lifting the club to a 3-2 win...Garret Anderson opened the scoring with a solo home run in the second inning and the Angels received RBI's from Vladimir Guerrero and Orlando Cabrera in the third frame...Neither team would score a run after the fourth inning as Scot Shields and Francisco Rodriguez combined on three scoreless frames to close out the victory.

Game 2 was shrouded with controversy as an apparent third strike call by umpire Doug Eddings to end the 9th inning resulted in AJ Pierzynski reaching first base amidst mass confusion on the field...Pinch-runner Pablo Ozuna promptly stole second base and scored the game-winning run on Joe Crede's double...Mark Buehrle went the distance for Chicago to earn the win as the Halos were held to one run on five hits...The series was tied at 1-1 and shifting to Anaheim.

In Game 3, another strong pitching performance did in the Angels as Jon Garland tossed a complete game en route to a 5-2 White Sox win...Paul Konerko's three-run home run in the first inning was all the offense needed on this night as the Angels' were limited to two runs (a 2-run HR by O. Cabrera) on four hits.

More of the same for the Halos in Game 4 as the offense posted just two runs on six hits off Freddy Garcia, the third straight White Sox starter to hurl a complete game...Konerko struck again in the first inning with another three-run shot off Ervin Santana as the Sox cruised to an 8-2 victory.

Game 5 saw the Angels take their first lead since Game 1, a 3-2 cushion entering the seventh inning... The White Sox seemed destined for the World Series as they scored four unanswered runs from the 7th frame on and Jose Contreras silenced the Angel bats, tossing the fourth straight complete game for Chicago...The Angels managed just 11 runs in the five-game series, the fewest by an ALCS team since Boston in 1990...For the second straight season, the Angels were eliminated from the playoffs by the eventual World Champion.

2007 DIVISION SERIES RECAP

For the second time in four seasons, the Angels faced the Boston Red Sox in the Division Series. Unfortunately for the Halos, they suffered the same fate as the 2004 ALDS vs. Boston - swept in three games to the eventual World Series Champions. The Angels scored in just two of 27 innings in the series and were held to a .192 (19/99) batting average. The Red Sox outscored the Angels 19-4 in the series.

Game 1 at Fenway Park belonged to Josh Beckett as he handcuffed the Angels all night in a complete game, four-hit shutout. The Red Sox did all the scoring they would need in the first three innings with home runs from Kevin Youkilis (solo) and David Ortiz (2-run).

Game 2 at Fenway Park was a 4-hour, 5-minute affair that ended in dramatic fashion. The Angels offense gave the club its first runs of the series with a three-run second inning to put the Halos up 3-2. The scoring was highlighted by RBI doubles from Chone Figgins and Orlando Cabrera. After the Red Sox tied the game with a sacrifice fly in the 5th frame, the game remained tied until the bottom of the 9th. With one out and a runner on second base, Francisco Rodriguez was summoned from the bullpen to face the heart of the lineup. A strikeout of Youkilis and an intentional walk to Ortiz set the table for Manny Ramirez. Ramirez connected for a three-run "walk-off" home run to give the Red Sox a commanding 2-0 series lead heading to Anaheim. The walk-off home run was the second suffered by the Angels in a span of three playoff games at Fenway Park (also Game 3 of 2004 ALDS). The Angels recorded five stolen bases in the contest but stranded 11 baserunners.

Game 3 at Angel Stadium matched Curt Schilling up with Jered Weaver in the largest crowd in Angel Stadium history (45,262). A scoreless affair until the top of the 4th when Ortiz and Ramirez connected for back-to-back home runs. It remained a 2-0 lead for Boston until the top of the 7th when the Red Sox exploded for seven runs to seal the Angels' fate. The defeat was the seventh straight post-season loss for the Angels and the ninth consecutive playoff loss to the Red Sox.

2008 DIVISION SERIES RECAP

For the third time in five seasons and fourth time in eight total playoff appearances (1986, 2004, 2007 & 2008), the Angels faced off against the Boston Red Sox (AL wild card entrant). The Halos entered the series with home-field advantage throughout the playoffs with the Majors' best record (100-62). The Angels also entered the 2008 post-season having dropped their last seven overall playoff games and last nine post-season games against Boston.

In Game 1 at Angel Stadium, the Angels' offense sputtered at the hands of Red Sox starter Jon Lester (7 IP, 6 H, 1 R, 0 ER, 1 BB, 7 SO) in the 4-1 setback. The Angels fell to 0-5 all-time in Game 1 in ALDS play. John Lackey (6.2 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 1 HR, 3 BB, 5 SO) suffered the loss despite a solid outing. The Angels held a 1-0 lead through five innings (courtesy of a Torii Hunter RBI single) before Jason Bay put the Red Sox up for good with a two-run shot off Lackey in the top of the sixth. The Angels' 2-5 hitters were 8-for-15 (.533) but the team went 1-for-7 with runners in scoring position, stranding nine baserunners.

In Game 2 at Angel Stadium, the Angels clawed back from an early four-run deficit to knot the game at 5-5 in the 8th inning. The momentum quickly evaporated as JD Drew's two-run home run off Francisco Rodriguez in the 9th frame proved to be the game-winner to put the Red Sox in a commanding 2-0 series lead. The Angels were down 0-2 in a playoff series for the fourth time in club history. The loss was the ninth consecutive playoff setback for the Angels and 11th straight playoff loss to Boston (an MLB record vs. one opponent). Chone Figgins' triple to lead off the 8th inning was the Angels' first extra-base hit of the series (first 19 hits were singles). The Angels were 3-for-14 with RISP while stranding 11 runners. Torii Hunter logged RBI singles in the 1st and 5th innings and drove in three of the Angels' six runs over the first two games.

In Game 3 at Fenway Park, the Angels beat the Red Sox in the playoffs for the first time since Oct. 11, 1986 (Game 4 of ALCS), snapping an 11-game skid to Boston. The 5-4, 12-inning win (5 hr., 19 min.) marked the longest post-season game in club history. Erick Aybar's 12th-inning RBI single scoring Mike Napoli was the game-winner. Napoli connected for two home runs marking the fifth time an Angel logged a multi-HR game in post-season history. Napoli became just the sixth MLB catcher with a multi-HR game in the playoffs. Napoli's first HR snapped the Angels' streak of 68 consecutive post-season innings without a home run. Jered Weaver (2 IP, 1 H, 1 BB, 3 SO) earned the victory in the first relief appearance of his career. The Angels' 3-4-5 hitters (Teixeira, Guerrero and Hunter) were a combined 20-for-39 (.513) through the first three games of the series. The Halos were 3-for-14 with RISP in Game 3 and were 7-for-35 (.200) through three games of the series, stranding 36 runners.

Game 4 at Fenway Park would end in a fashion all-too-familiar to the Angels - a walk-off, series-clinching win for the Red Sox. A clutch two-out, two-run single by Torii Hunter in the bottom of the 8th inning tied the game a 2-2. In the top of the 9th, the Halos looked poised to take the lead after a leadoff double by pinch-hitter Kendry Morales. However, the scoring threat was foiled after a botched suicide squeeze ended the rally. In the 9th, Jed Lowrie's two-out RBI single plated Jason Bay from second base with the winning run. For the third time in five seasons, the Angels were eliminated from the playoffs by the Red Sox in the first round.

Bobby Grich, Jim Fregosi, Don Baylor, Rod Carew, Nolan Ryan and Jimmie Reese were the first six inductees into the Angels' Hall of Fame.

Grich, who retired following the American League Championship Series against Boston in 1986, was inducted Feb. 3, 1988. He is one of only two Angels (Brian Downing being the other) to participate in each of the club's three Western Division titles.

Grich officially became an Angel Nov. 24, 1976. The native of Muskegon, MI concluded his Angels career with a .269 average in 1,222 games including 154 home runs and 557 RBI. During his career, Grich compiled the following overall numbers: .266 average, 2,008 games, 6,890 at-bats, 1,033 runs, 1,833 hits, 224 home runs and 864 RBI.

One of California's most popular players, Grich became only the second player in club history to play 1,000 games-or-more (1,098) at one position, joining Fregosi who totaled 1,367 appearances at shortstop. Grich's .997 fielding percentage in 1985 established a major league record for second basemen.

On the date of his induction, Grich ranked among the top three on several Angels all-time lists, including games (third), at-bats (third - 4,100), runs (third - 601), home runs (second), runs batted in (second), extra-base hits (third - 357), hits (third - 1,103), doubles (third - 183) and total bases (third - 1,788).

In 1981, Grich recorded a career-high .304 average and tied Dwight Evans, Tony Armas and Eddie Murray for the A.L. home run derby (22 each). The feat made him the first second baseman to lead the league in home runs since Nap Lajoie of Philadelphia totaled 14 in 1901. He also became the first A.L. second baseman to lead in slugging since George Stirnweiss with the Yankees in 1945 (.476). During the '81 campaign, Grich compiled a career-best 21-game hitting streak (May 21-Aug. 19), the third longest in club annals.

In 1980, Grich was co-winner of the Owner's Trophy, symbolic of the club's Most Valuable Player as selected by the players.

Fregosi, a six-time Angels All-Star, was inducted May 17, 1989. He appeared with the Angels from 1961-71 as a player and then managed the club from June 1, 1978 through May 28, 1981. Fregosi guided the club to an 87-75 finish in 1978 and a second place tie prior to the memorable 1979 season when the Angels captured their first-ever Western Division title at 88-74. For his efforts, Fregosi was runner-up in balloting by the Associated Press for A.L. Manager of the Year. He finished with a 237-248 record managing the Angels (.489).

As a player, Fregosi's career spanned 18 major league seasons during which he registered a .265 lifetime average. He was originally acquired by the Angels Dec. 14, 1960 in the expansion draft from the Boston Red Sox.

Fregosi was voted the Angels Owner's Trophy three times and was a Gold Glove recipient in 1964.

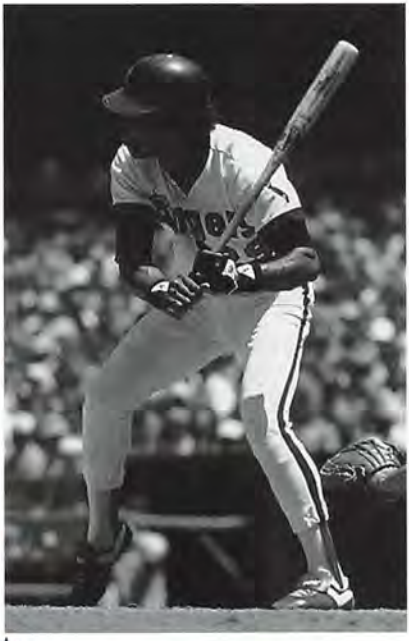
At the time of his induction, Fregosi led on California's all-time lists in the following categories: games (1,429), at-bats (5,244), hits (1,408) and triples (70). In addition, he also ranked second in runs (691), doubles (219), extra-base hits (404) and total bases (2,112).

Baylor, the first Angel to win the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1979, was inducted on May 26, 1990. He appeared with the Angels from 1977-82. He was a member of the Angels first two Western Division Championships in 1979 and 1982. During his '79 MVP season, Baylor compiled a .296 average with 36 home runs and a league-leading 139 RBI. He also led the league in games played (162) and runs scored (120). His marks in games played, runs scored, RBI and total bases that season set club single-season records. In the '82 American League Championship Series, he hit .294 with a grand slam and series-high 10 RBI.

Baylor's career spanned 19 major league seasons during which he registered a .260 lifetime average and 338 home runs. He was originally acquired by the Angels Nov. 16, 1976 as a free agent. With the Angels, he averaged 23 home runs and 87 RBI, while batting .262 in six seasons.

Baylor was voted the Owner's Trophy twice (1978 & 1979) and earned All-Star recognition as an outfielder in '79.

Upon his induction, Baylor ranked on California's All-Time list in the following categories: third in home runs (141), fourth in at-bats (3,105), runs (481), RBI (523) and total bases (1,390). In addition, he also ranked fifth in extra base hits (288), hits (813), doubles (140, tied with Carew) and stolen bases (89).



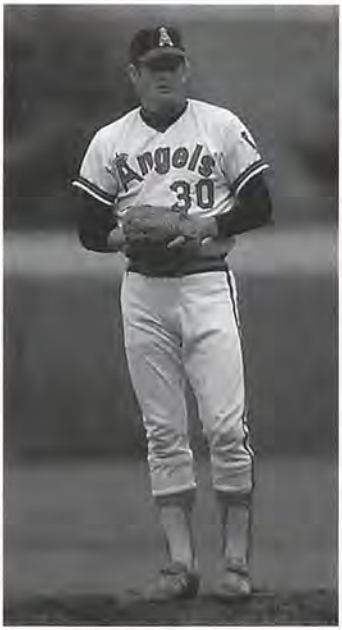
Carew was the 16th player in major league history to collect 3,000 hits (Aug. 4, 1985 vs. Minnesota). He was inducted into the Angels Hall of Fame, Aug. 6, 1991 and the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, July 21, 1991.

Carew appeared with the Angels from 1979-85. He was a member of California's first two Western Division Championship teams in 1979 and 1982. His finest season was 1983, when he established a then club record for batting average at .339.

Carew's career spanned 19 major league seasons, the first 12 with Minnesota. He won seven batting titles (1969, 1972-75, 1977-78) and the American League Most Valuable Player Award in 1977 when he hit .388 with 239 hits and 128 runs scored.

Carew was named "Rookie of the Year" by the BBWAA in 1967 and selected to the A.L. All-Star team 18 times (1967-84). He is the only Angel to start in five Mid-Summer Classics.

Originally acquired by the Angels from Minnesota, Feb. 3, 1979, Carew ranked 38th on baseball's All-Time lists in average (.328), tied for 35th in games (2,469), 31st in at-bats (9,315), 13th in hits (3,053) and sixth in singles (2,404) at the time of his induction. On the Angels' All-Time lists, he still ranks first in career average (.314).



Ryan, who became the 20th pitcher in major league history to win 300 games (July 31, 1990 at Milwaukee) and owns a major league record seven no-hitters and 5,714 strikeouts was inducted and had his uniform No. 30 retired, June 16, 1992.

Ryan appeared with the Angels from 1972-79, compiling a 138-121 record and 3.06 ERA in 291 games. Ryan tossed four of his no-hitters with the Angels and holds or shares several club records, including complete games (156), shutouts (40) and strikeouts (2,416). In 1977, he was selected "A.L. Pitcher of the Year" by The Sporting News and named to its All-Star team. In 1973, Ryan established a major league record for strikeouts in a single season with 383. He was originally acquired by California, Dec. 10, 1971, along with pitcher Don Rose, outfielder Leroy Stanton and catcher Francisco Estrada in exchange for Jim Fregosi.

Ryan's career spanned 27 seasons, the most in major league history. He began his career with the New York Mets, posting a 29-38 record and 3.58 ERA in 105 games (74 starts) from 1966-71. Following eight seasons with California, he appeared with the Houston Astros from 1980-88, compiling a 106-94 mark and 3.13 ERA in 282 starts. He joined the Texas Rangers in 1989 and finished 51-39 with a 3.43 ERA in five seasons.

Ryan was named to eight All-Star teams (five with California) and appeared in five games, including as starting pitcher for the American League in 1979 in Seattle. He pitched two scoreless relief innings to win the 1989 game in Anaheim, becoming the oldest pitcher to win an All-Star game. Ryan was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame, July 25, 1999.

Did You Know? Nolan Ryan appeared in 291 career games with the Angels. Of those 291 games, 156 (54%) were complete game efforts.

Reese, whose 23 years in an Angels uniform is second longest in club history (Bobby Knoop - 24), was inducted on Aug. 2, 1995.

A former roommate of Babe Ruth, Reese began his career as a batboy for the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League in 1917. He broke into baseball seven years later as a second baseman for the minor league Oakland Oaks.

Reese played one more year in the majors (1932 with St. Louis) before returning to the Pacific Coast League in 1933. In three major league seasons, he hit .278, including a .345 mark in a reserve role for the Yankees in 1930.

Reese played 12 seasons in the PCL (Oakland, 1924-29; Los Angeles, 1933-36 and San Diego, 1937-38) and was honored as all-time second baseman of the league. He set a career fielding record for total chances with 9,890 and led the PCL in fielding three times (1927, 1929 & 1934).

On March 30, 1972, Reese joined the California Angels coaching staff. During his 23 years, he built a reputation for being the most prolific fungo hitter in baseball. In 1989, Reese was selected by the late Commissioner Bart Giamatti to throw out the ceremonial first pitch for the 60th All-Star Game at Anaheim Stadium. In 1992, he was named honorary captain of the American League All-Stars at the contest in San Diego. Jimmie Reese passed away on July 13, 1994 at the age of 92.

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or any part of it, or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs in a tie game. Individual player performances are official and entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE:
Rule 4.12 SUSPENDED GAMES
(a) A league shall adopt the following rules providing for completion at a future date of games terminated for any of the following reasons:
(1) A curfew imposed by law;
(2) A time limit permissible under league rules;
(3) Light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under the control of the home club (Mechanical field device shall include automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment);
(4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on;
(5) Weather, if the game is called when an inning is in progress and before it is completed, and one of the following situations prevails:
(i) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score, and the home team has not scored.
(ii) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead, and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

(b) Such games shall be known as suspended games. No game called because of curfew, weather, or time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game under the provisions of Rule 4.10. A game called under the provisions of 4.12 (a)(3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts.

(c) By amending NOTE to read as follows:
NOTE: Weather and similar conditions—4.12(a) (1 through 5)—shall take precedence in determining whether a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the five(5) reasons specified in Section (a). Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied (unless situation outlined in 4.12 (a) (5) (i) prevails) is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

(c) A suspended game shall be resumed and completed as follows:
(1) Immediately preceding the next single game between the two clubs on the same grounds; or
(2) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header between the two clubs on the same grounds, if no single game remains on the schedule, or
(3) If suspended on the last scheduled date between the two clubs in the city, transferred and played on the ground of the opposing club, if possible;
(i) Immediately preceding the next scheduled single game, or
(ii) Immediately preceding the next scheduled double-header, if no single game remains on the schedule.
(4) If a suspended game has not been resumed and completed on the last date scheduled for the two clubs, it shall be a called game.

A suspended game shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. The completion of a suspended game is a continuation of the original game. The lineup and batting order of both teams shall be exactly the same as the lineup and batting order at the moment of suspension, subject to the rules governing substitution. Any player may be replaced by a player who had not been in the game prior to the suspension. No player removed before the suspension may be returned to the lineup. A player who was not with the club when the game was suspended may be used as a substitute, even if he has taken the place of a player no longer with the club who would not have been eligible because he has been removed from the lineup before the game was suspended.

4.11(d)
A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called when an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:
(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.
(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

DISABLED LISTS: REGULAR DISABLED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days. No limit on number of players that may be on at one time. EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity—60 calendar days. No limit on number of players on list at one time but may only be used when club is at maximum limit of 40 players under control. Players on 60-day list do not count against 40-man. Players placed on this list after Aug. 1st shall remain there for the balance of the season. Day 1 is following player's last game appearance. REINSTATEMENT may be made beginning Day 16 or 61 respectively; after minimum period has expired player may be reinstated at any time (except in certain "Emergency"cases...see above). BEREAVEMENT LIST: The maximum period of inactivity is 10 calendar days. No limit on munber of players that may be on at one time.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. (i.e. 5:01 p.m., or later), will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:00 p.m., and is delayed by rain or for any other reasons, it will be considered a day game.
However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same date and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day and one night game, and will not be included in the doubleheader statistics.

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: A batting champion must have 502 or more actual plate appearances. (the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games). If, however, there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then the player shall be awarded the batting championship.

EARNED-RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the earned-run average championship a pitcher must pitch at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest earned-run average.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual fielding champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided: (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
(2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season;
(3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION: If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of standings from the closest opponent.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON & LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

CONSECUTIVE STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak, if a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

"SAVE" RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
  (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning,
  (b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
  (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE: A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner who in turn becomes the designated hitter while still in the game. The designated hitter may be used defensively and the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

The designated hitter named in the starting lineup must come to bat at least one time, unless the opposition changes pitchers.

SCORING RULE ON PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

A substitute hitter for a Designated Hitter is both a pinch hitter and a Designated Hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a Designated Hitter only.

EARNED RUNS RULE: The determination of earned-run is as follows:

An earned run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls; and the benefit of doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.

Until 1969, the reliever could not be charged with an earned run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up in that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, shared as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against a team and the sum total of the earned-runs charged against in the individual pitchers of that team.

DOCTORED BAT: A batter is out for illegal action when he uses or attempts to use a bat that, in the umpire's judgement, has been altered or tampered with in such a way to improve the distance factor or cause an unusual reaction on the baseball. This includes bats that are filled, flat-surfaced, nailed, hollowed, grooved or covered with a substance such as paraffin, wax, etc. No advancement on the bases will be allowed and any out or outs made during a play shall stand. In addition to being called out, the player shall be ejected from the game and may be subject to additional penalties as determined by his League President (Rule 6.06d).

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR": 172 days constitutes a full year in the major leagues.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: is credited for each day the player appears on an active roster or major league disabled list or suspended list.
In the case of a player called up from the minor leagues, is credited beginning with the date he physically reports.
In the case of a major league player who is traded and reports in the normal course, service is not interrupted.
In the case of a player sent down to the minor leagues, is credited through the date of the assignment.
In the case of a player who is unconditionally released, is credited through the date player was notified of his release.
In the case of a player designated for release or assignment or assignment (MLR 2), is credited after the designation, through the date of the actual assignment or the date player was notified of unconditional release.
For a player who appears on his club's opening day roster, is credited as of the earliest scheduled opener, without regard to the actual opening date of his own club.
Is credited at the rate of 172 days per "year," though the season is actually 183 days long.
Is not credited during any period or periods of optional assignment totaling 20 days or more during a single season.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATION: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of a 25-man limit (excluding time in military service or time on the disabled list).

March 5	World Baseball Classic Begins
March 23	World Baseball Classic Final, Dodger Stadium, Los Angeles
April 5	Official opening of the 2009 Championship Season. All Clubs are required to reduce rosters to 25 players by April 5. Opening Night — Atlanta Braves vs. Philadelphia Phillies (ESPN2).
April 6	Opening Day
April 15	Jackie Robinson Day
May 15	Earliest date Clubs may re-sign players that they unconditionally released between midnight August 31, 2008 and April 5, 2009.
June 9 & 10	First-Year Player Draft
July 12	Taco Bell All-Star Sunday, Busch Stadium, St. Louis, MO
July 13	Gatorade All-Star Workout Day, Busch Stadium, St. Louis
July 14	The 80th All-Star Game – Busch Stadium, St. Louis, MO.
July 26	Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony – Cooperstown, NY
July 31	Players may be traded between Clubs until 4:00 p.m. ET without Trade Waivers in effect.
August 1	Beginning today through the last day of the championship season, players may be assigned between Major League clubs ONLY after Trade Waivers have been secured during the current waiver period.
August 31	Any player unconditionally released between midnight tonight and Opening Day of next season may not be re-signed to a Major League contract by the releasing team until May 15th of the following season.
Sept. 1	Active player limit increased from 25 to 40.
Oct. 4	Official closing of the 2009 Championship Season.
Dec. 7-10	Baseball Winter Meetings, Indianapolis, IN
Dec. 10	Major League Rule 5 Draft
Dec. 12	Last date to tender contracts – midnight tonight.

Abscess — An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.
Anaphylactic Shock — Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.
Anterior Compartment Syndrome — Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) — A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Anti-Inflammatory — Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.
Arteriogram — A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.
Arthrogram — X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.
Arthroscope — An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.
Arthroscopy — A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.
Aspiration — The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.
Atrophy — To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.
Avascular Necrosis — Death of a part due to lack of circulation.
Avulsion — The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.
Baker's Cyst — Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
Bone Scan — An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot"on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Brachial Plexus — Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand, and fingers.
Bursa — A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.
Capsule — An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.
CAT Scan — Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.
Cellulitis — Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.
Cervical Vertebrae — Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.
Collateral Ligament — on either side of and acting as a radius of movement, a hinge joint, as of the elbow, knee and wrist.
Colles' Fracture — A fracture of the distal end of the radium with the lower end being displaced backward.
Concussion — Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.
Contusion — An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.
Cortical Steroids — Used to suppress joint inflammation.
Costochondral — Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.
Degenerative Joint Disease — Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.
Deltoid Ligament — Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.
Deltoid Muscle — Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.
Disc, Intervertebral — A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.
Dislocation — Complete displacement of joint surfaces.
Dusky — Areas of decreased temperature may indicate arterial compromise and decreased tissue viability.
Eccymosis — Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.
Edema — Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.
Effusion — Accumulation of fluid, or the knee itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.
Electromyogram (EMG) — Test to determine nerve function.
Epicondylitis — Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.
Erythema — Inflammatory redness of the skin.
Exudate — Any fluid that has exuded out of a tissue or its capillaries, specifically because of injury or inflammation.
Fracture — Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.
Gadolinium MRI — The chemical gadolinium is injected into the joint being studied to enhance the diagnosis image of the structures under investigation.
Grade One Injury — A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or confused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.
Grade Two Injury — A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.
Grade Three Injury — A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.
Hematoma — Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Illiotibial Band — A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.
Inflammation — The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.
Labrum — An edge, rim or lip-shaped structure found in the shoulder joint.
Ligament — Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) — Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.
Meniscectomy — An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.
Meniscus — Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.
Metacarpals — Five long bones of the hand running from the wrist to the fingers.
Metatarsals — Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.
Patella Tendinitis — Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumpers knee."
Patellofemoral Joint — Articulation of the kneecap and femur. Inflammation of this joint can occur through: 1) acute injury to the patella, 2) overuse from excessive running particularly if there is an associated knee weakness, 3) chronic wear and tear of the knee, 4) as a result of poor foot mechanics. Patellofemoral irritation can lead to chondromalancia, which in its most chronic condition, could require surgery.
Phlebitis — Inflammation of a vein.
Plica — Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.
Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) — A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months rehabilitation.
Reconstruction — Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.
Referred Pain — Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.
Rotator Cuff — Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.
Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome — A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress, and the four stages are: 1) tendentious with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff; 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation; 3) a partial rotator cuff tear of less than one cm.; and 4) a complete tear of one cm. or more.
Scapula — Shoulder blade.
Sciatica — Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.
Sciatic Nerve — Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.
Shin Splint — A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.
Spondylitis — Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.
Spondylolisthesis — Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.
Spondylosis — Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.
Sprain — Injury resulting from a stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.
Strain — Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.
Stress Fracture — A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.
Stress X-Ray — A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.
Subluxation — Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.
Tarsals — Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.
Tendinitis — Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.
Tendon — Tissue that connects muscle to bone.
Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome — A neuro-vascular disorder or the upper extremity common in throwing.
Tomograph — A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.
Transverse Process — Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.
Triangular Cartilage — A connective tissue characterized by its nonvascularity and firm consistency; located on the little finger side of the wrist.
Ulna Collateral Ligament — A band or sheet of fibrous tissue connecting two or more bones, cartilage, or other structures, or serving as support for fasciae or muscles located on the inside of the elbow (ligament that is replaced or repaired for the "Tommy John" surgery).
Ulnar Nerve — Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated by excessive throwing.
Wrist — The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and eight wrist bones (trapezium, capitate, hamate, pisiform, trequetral, lunate and scaphoid)

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others. The Angels would like to congratulate Tim Salmon on being named the club's 2006 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer; Jim Thome; Curt Schilling; Al Leiter; Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith and Cal Ripken, Jr.

TEMPE DIABLO STADIUM

The Angels will hold Spring Training for the 17th consecutive season (dating back to 1993) in Tempe, AZ, where they play their spring home games at Tempe Diablo Stadium.

The Angels initially signed a 25-year lease (including two five-year options) with the city of Tempe on July 25,1991, making Tempe Diablo Stadium their Spring Training facility until 2017. Then on Nov. 8, 2004, the Angels and the city agreed to an extended lease through the year 2025. As part of the new lease agreement, the Tempe Diablo Stadium complex was expanded and renovated to include the club's Minor League spring operations, a project that was completed in time for the 2006 Spring Training season. (See box next page.)

Tempe Diablo Stadium, which is owned and operated by the City of Tempe Parks and Recreation Department, previously housed the Seattle Pilots, Milwaukee Brewers (1969-71) and Seattle Mariners (1977-92).

In 1992, the stadium was completely rebuilt and renovated with the combined efforts of HOK Sports Facilities Group and the Angels. Groundbreaking for the stadium took place, April 22, 1992 and cost an estimated $5.8 million to complete. Two-thirds of the funding was provided by Maricopa County and one-third by the city of Tempe. All revenues from food and beverage concessions, parking, souvenirs and in-stadium advertising are shared equally by the City of Tempe and the Angels, while the city receives 20% of revenues from ticket sales.

Dedication ceremonies for Tempe Diablo Stadium took place Feb. 27, 1993, with the Angels playing their first spring home game, March 7, 1993 against Oakland.

The new Tempe Diablo Stadium complex includes six-and-a-half practice fields in addition to the main stadium, which was dedicated as Gene Autry Field in 1999 in honor of the former Angels' owner who passed away after the 1998 season.

ANGELS SPRING TRAINING SITES

Beginning in 1961, the Angels played their Spring Training contests at Angels Stadium in Palm Springs. The facility was formerly called the Polo Grounds until switching its name in 1964. Then, on December 19, 1965, the Angels signed an agreement to also hold Spring Training in Holtville, CA, located approximately 10 miles east of El Centro. The club annually spent 10 days to two weeks at the four-diamond complex from 1966 through 1979, before returning on a full-time basis to Palm Springs in 1980.

In 1982 and 1983, the Angels divided spring headquarters between Casa Grande, AZ and Palm Springs.

On April 1, 1992, the Angels defeated San Diego, 3-1 at Angels Stadium in the final exhibition game of Spring Training. The contest was historic in that it marked the final spring training game for the Angels in Palm Springs, CA, their Cactus League home for 32 years.

TEMPE DIABLO STADIUM RENOVATIONS

On Nov. 8, 2004, the Angels agreed to an extended lease with the city of Tempe which included the expansion and renovation of the Tempe Diablo Stadium complex. Following are some of the improvements completed in the recent renovation:

—Minor league Spring Training operations moved from Mesa to Tempe;
—Practice fields expanded and constructed to create four additional lighted ball fields;
—Refurbished club houses and expanded dugouts;
—New state-of-the-art seating;
—New sound system;
